

Contents

Notes on the Author	iv
Preface and Acknowledgements	v
PART I: Setting the Scene	1
1 Introduction	3
2 What Is Constitutional Citizenship and How Can We Study It?	35
PART II: Constitutional Citizenship Unpacked	61
3 Picking out the People: Ideals and Identities in the Citizenship/Constitution Relation	63
4 The Acquisition and Loss of Citizenship in a Constitutional Context	99
5 Filling out Citizenship: Citizenship Rights, Constitutional Rights and Human Rights	149
PART III: Citizenship under Pressure: National and Global Tensions	179
6 The Populist Challenge to Constitutional Citizenship: The Closing of Discursive Space	181
7 Shifting Spatialities of Citizenship	223
8 Conclusions	253
References	259
Index	319