

Illustrations		vii
Notes on Contributors		ix
Acknowledgments		xiii
Introduction: Early Modern Domesticities: Integrating People, Spaces, Objects		1
Erin J. Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller, and Elizabeth Carroll Consavari
Part I Domesticities
1 “Uno palazo bellissimo”: Town and Country Living in Renaissance Bologna		19
Catherine Fletcher
2 From Padua to Rome: Pietro Bembo’s Mobile Objects and Convivial Interiors		33
Susan Nalezyty
3 “A casa con i Sirani”: A Successful Family Business and Household in Early Modern Bologna		47
Adelina Modesti
Part II People, Spaces, and Objects
4 Parenting in the Palazzo: Images and Artifacts of Children in the Italian Renaissance Home		67
Stephanie R. Miller

5	The Venetian Portego : Family Piety and Public Prestige Margaret A. Morse	89
6	Art and Family Viewers in the Seventeenth-Century Bolognese Domestic Interior Erin J. Campbell	107
Part III Domestic Objects and Sociability
7	Chi vuol esser lieto, sia : Objects of Entertainment in the Tornabuoni Palace in Florence Maria DePrano	127
8	Il mare di pittura : Domestic Pictures and Sociability in the Late Sixteenth-Century Venetian Interior Elizabeth Carroll Consavari	143
9	Let's Eat: Kitchens and Dining in the Renaissance Palazzo and Country Estate Katherine A. McIver	159
10	Silk-Clad Walls and Sleeping Cupids: A Documentary Reconstruction of the Living Quarters of Lucrezia Borgia, Duchess of Ferrara Allyson Burgess Williams	175
11	"All that is Seen": Ritual and Splendor at the Montefeltro Court in Urbino Jennifer D. Webb	191
Part IV Objectifying the Domestic Interior
12	Objectifying the Domestic Interior: Domestic Furnishings and the Historical Interpretation of the Italian Renaissance Interior Adriana Turpin	207
13	Recreating the Renaissance Domestic Interior: A Case Study of One Museum's Approach to the Period Room Susan E. Wegner	227
	Selected Bibliography	245
	Index	255