

Table of Contents

Dedication page	v
Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction. The Franciscans in Colonial Mexico David Rex Galindo, Jay T. Harrison, and Thomas M. Cohen	1
Chapter 1. My Encounter with the Franciscans and with History Fr. Francisco Morales, OFM	17
Chapter 2. Visions in the Service of Virtue: Rhetorical Mysticism in Motolinía's Memoriales Hilaire Kallendorf	33
Chapter 3. Fray Juan Bautista de Viseo's Missionary Work in Three Languages: A Synthesis of the Sixteenth Century in New Spain Verónica Murillo Gallegos	57
Chapter 4. Games, Sacrality, and the Formation of Colonial Society in Mexico City Jonathan Truitt	83
Chapter 5. The Landa Conundrum Matthew Restall	109
Chapter 6. Sapientia et Doctrina : The Structure of Franciscan Education in San José Province and the Teaching of Alphabetic Literacy among the Yucatec Maya, 1545–1650 John F. Chuchiak, IV	127
Chapter 7. The Travels of El devoto peregrino : A Franciscan Holy Land Comes to New Spain Karen Melvin	157
Chapter 8. From Celebration to Retreat: Changes in the Discourse on the Martyrdom of Franciscan Missionaries in Central and Northern New Spain, Sixteenth through Nineteenth Centuries José Refugio de la Torre Curiel	177

Chapter 9. The Catholic Missions of the Sierra Gorda before Junípero Serra Steven W. Hackel . . . . .	201
Chapter 10. Congregación and Control: The Franciscan Experience in Baja California Rose Marie Beebe and Robert Senkewicz . . . . .	235
Chapter 11. Defining Time and Space: Franciscans and Bells in Northern New Spain Kristin Dutcher Mann . . . . .	259
Chapter 12. Franciscans in Northeastern New Spain Cecilia Sheridan Prieto . . . . .	287
Chapter 13. Franciscans, Jesuits, and the Desire for Martyrdom in New Spain Emanuele Colombo . . . . .	309
Contributors . . . . .	343
Index . . . . .	349