

CONTENT

1 THIRTY YEARS OF POST-SOCIALIST RETAIL TRANSFORMATION IN CENTRAL EUROPE	5
2 THE TRANSFORMATION OF CZECH RETAIL	13
2.1 Retail before 1989	14
2.2.1 The stage of atomisation (1990–1995)	21
2.2.2 The stage of internationalisation (1996–2004)	23
2.2.3 The stage of consolidation (2005 – the present)	26
2.2.4 The stage of diversification (2013/2014 – until now)	29
2.3 Creation of the network structure in the Czech retail	30
2.4 Diffusion character of retail network structure	34
2.5 The phenomenon of shopping centres	37
2.5.1 Change in the development of shopping centres in the Czech Republic	44
2.6 Conclusions, trends, retail, and COVID-19 pandemic	47
3 THE TRANSFORMATION OF SLOVAK RETAIL	51
3.1 Stages in the transformation of retail	51
3.1.1 Retail in Slovakia during the communist era	52
3.1.2 Retail in Slovakia during the transition era	56
3.1.3 Retail in Slovakia during the globalisation era	59
3.2 Conclusions and trends	69
4 THE TRANSFORMATION OF HUNGARIAN RETAIL	73
4.1 Hungarian domestic retail between the two world wars	73
4.2 From nationalizations to 1989	74
4.3 The situation of cooperative retailing until the change of regime	77
4.4 Cooperative retailing after the change of regime	78
4.5 The awakening and conquest of private retail	79
4.6 Power fields and roles of Hungarian and international food chains	82
4.7 Types of shops and chains	90
4.8 Shopping centres and food retail	99
4.8.1 In Hungary from the beginning	99
4.8.2 The 7 generations of shopping centres	100
4.8.3 Shopping centres in Hungary	108
4.9 The impact of COVID-19 pandemic on retail sector	114
4.10 Will the future of trading be offline or online?	120
4.11 Conclusion	120
5 THE TRANSFORMATION OF POLAND RETAIL	123
5.1 Retail trade in the literature on the geography of services: A Polish perspective	123

5.2 Retail trade development	126
5.2.1 Retail trade until 1989–1990: the period of the centrally controlled economy	127
5.3 The chain structure in Polish retail trade	139
5.3.1 Development of super– and hypermarket chains in Poland	139
5.3.2 The phenomenon of shopping centres	147
5.3.3 Case studies of large–format retail chains: A temporal and spatial perspective	152
5.4 Conclusions, trends in retail trade and COVID-19	161
6 SOCIO-ECONOMIC CHALLENGES IN RETAILING: PAST EXPERIENCE AND FUTURE PERSPECTIVES	165
7 DETAILS AND DIFFERENCES IN RETAIL TRANSFORMATION IN THE V4 COUNTRIES: CONCLUDING COMMENTS	173
REFERENCES	177
ABOUT AUTHORS	189
INDEX	193

21	Dariusz Ilnicki
22	Institute of Geography and Regional Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences
23	Environmental Management
24	Ryan Wyeth
25	(Institute of Geography and Regional Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences)
26	Environmental Management
27	4.1 Hungarian domestic retail before the two world wars
28	4.2 From nationalizations to 1989
29	4.3 The situation of cooperative retailing until the change of regime
30	4.4 Cooperative retailing after the change of regime
31	4.5 The awakening and conquest of private retail
32	4.6 Power fields and roles of Hungarian and international food chains
33	4.7 Types of shops and chains
34	4.8 Shopping centres and food retail
35	4.8.1 Hungary's private food retail
36	4.8.2 The transformation of shopping centres
37	4.8.3 Shopping centres in Hungary
38	4.9 The impact of COVID-19 pandemic on retail sector
39	4.10 Will the future of trading be offline or online?
40	4.11 Conclusion

41	2 THE TRANSFORMATION OF POLAND RETAIL
42	2.1 Retail trade in the literature on the geography of services: A Polish perspective