

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
1 Introduction: Taiwan's democratic consolidation John W. Garver	1
PART I
Constitutional debate amidst political challenges	35
2 The politics of constitutional reform in Taiwan Shelley Rigger	37
3 Negotiating national identity in Taiwan: between nativization and de-sinicization Christopher R. Hughes	51
4 The polarization of Taiwan's party competition in the DPP era Dafydd Fell	75
PART II
Economic restructuring in the global context	99
5 Is the Taiwan model of growth, human resource development and equity sustainable in the twenty-first century? Anne Booth	101

6	Taiwan's industrial policy and the economic rise of the PRC: opportunities and challenges Yun-Peng Chu and Gee San	125
7	Trade, investment, and technological upgrading: opportunities and challenges facing Taiwan Barry Naughton	146
8	Globalization, dynamic comparative advantage, and Taiwan's drive for sustainable development Peter C.Y. Chow	166
	Index	193