

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
PART I
Chronology and explanations: what happened in Hungary in 2010–2012	9
1 Democratic U-turn, the chronology of building an illiberal democracy	11
1. Meanwhile in Hungary: An illiberal democracy in the making	15
2. The legislative juggernaut	15
3. Dismantling rule-of-law guarantees	19
4. And the new constitution...	23
5. Expanding the electorate and gerrymandering	24
6. Constitutional partnership or cemented clientelism?	26
7. Immediate responses	26
2 Causes and explanations	35
1. Values and political culture	35
2. Orbán and his strategy: The rhetoric and politics of the “dark side”	37
3. A little help from the constitutional structure...	40
4. Economic hardship	40

PART II

The microfabric of the Hungarian illiberal democracy	45
3 Illiberalism as constitutional identity	47
1. Terminology and conceptualization	48
2. Illiberalism and the emergence of a new political community: The System of National Cooperation	50
3. Illiberalism and the System of National Cooperation	56
4. Illiberal democracy as constitutional identity	57
4 Intimate citizenship and value preferences in the new Constitution	66
1. The SNC as a workfare state	68
2. The SNC as a Christian state	69
3. Family in the SNC	73
4. Equality of intimate citizenship in the SNC	79
5. Reproductive rights in the SNC	82
6. Paternalism and essentialism in the SNC	82
7. Conclusions	85
5 Illiberal multiculturalism: deceptive premises, misguided policies	90
1. Illiberal transnationalism: The nation and the constitution in internal and external homelands	92
2. Illiberal multiculturalism: The nation and the minorities	95
3. Conclusion	118
6 Communitarians, dignity and privacy: personhood and transparency in the System of National Cooperation	126
1. Communities as primary agents of dignity	128
2. Liberal instruments for illiberal objectives: Privacy as a tool to obstruct public accountability and to protect the dignity of government institutions and officials	132
3. Privacy as a tool for ethnic discrimination and marginalization	142
4. Concluding thoughts	155
7 Closing remarks	163
Index	165