

Contents

	Introduction	1
1	Historical Legacies and Context	6
	Worries and Wormholes	7
	Russian Phobias or Russophobia	9
	The International Context	17
	Populism and Russian Soft Power	23
	Notes	27
2	Was Putin Out to Subvert the West?	31
	The Russia Scare and Cold War II	32
	Cultural Conflict and Geopolitics	37
	Active Measures and Soft Power	45
	Offshore Corruption	48
	Power Politics	51
	Autocracy Promotion and Double Standards	54
	Notes	57
3	The Russians Are Coming 1: Meddling in America	62
	Russiagate	63
	Maria Butina and Her Friends	71
	The Case of Dimitri Simes	75
	Cold War II and the Silencing of Dissent	78
	Notes	82
4	The Russians Are Coming 2: Britain, Brexit and Beyond	87
	Brexit Blues	87
	Strange Connections	91

The Skripal Mystery 92
The Russia Report: Findings 96
The Russia Report: Reception 101
Notes 115

5 The Russians Are Coming 3: Europe and Beyond 121

Continental Cases 122
Back to the Wall 127
Notes 130

6 Cyber Conflict and Management 133

Cyberattacks and Hybrid Warfare 133
Managing Cyber Relations 138
Notes 142

7 Information Warfare and Disinformation Struggles 145

The Global Disinformation War 145
The Counter-disinformation Complex 149
Blowback: Neo-journalism and the Russia Scare 157
Notes 161

8 Explanations and Interpretations 166

Cold War II and Interference 166
Post-diplomacy and Values in International Politics 171
Deception and Self-Deception 174
The People Speak 177
Notes 180

9 Conclusion 184

Notes 190

Bibliography 193
Index 202