

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Latin Titles, Abbreviations, and Translations	xi
Introduction: The Hour of Woman; the Hour of Prophesying Love	xiii
Part I: The Prophetic Feminine Genius: Cognitive and Ontological Dimensions	1
1 St. John Paul II on the Genius of Woman Susan C. Selner-Wright	3
2 On Women and the “Seeing” of Others Paul Kucharski	15
Part II: Recasting Feminism and Femininity as Prophecy	29
3 The Feminine Genius, Personalist Feminism, and the Call for Women to Prophecy according to John Paul II R. Mary Hayden Lemmons	31
4 Woman as Prophet: A Feminism for the Twenty-First Century Deborah Savage	45
5 The New Feminism, Prophetic Bodies, and Freedom Christine Falk Dalessio	65
6 Prophetic Femininity in the Bible, the Church, and Nature: Reflections on John Paul II’s Prophetism of Femininity and Marian Ecclesiology R. Mary Hayden Lemmons	79

Part III: The Spirituality of Women Prophets	109
7 Worthy of Belief: Reflections on Prophecy, Responsibility, and Virtue Heidi Giebel	111
8 St. Hildegard: Prophet and Doctor of the Church Anne King	127
9 Women Mystics of the Catholic Church Susan J. Stabile	135
Part VI: Meeting Key Personal, Professional, and Cultural Challenges	149
10 Women and the Crises of Polarization and Secularization Mary Eberstadt	151
11 The Destructiveness of Lust and Its Cure: Reflections on Dante, Aquinas, and Wojtyła Anthony T. Flood	163
12 The Logic of the Gift: Spousal Love and Marriage in the Thought of Karol Wojtyła/St. John Paul II Richard A. Spinello	177
13 How Mothers with Professional Careers Experience the State of Flourishing, and Why It Matters for Faith Communities Peggy Andrews	197
14 Spirit in the Heartland: Catholic Sisters as Servant Leaders for Justice and the Common Good Meg Wilkes Karraker	217
Afterword: Discussion of Key Interdisciplinary Findings and Lessons	231
Index	251
About the Contributors	267