

THE CORRUPTION CANCER IN THE BRAIN	7
Treating cancer in a changing situation	7
The country as a prostitute	8
Oligarchs and prostitutes	10
A HISTORY OF CORRUPT PRACTICES	12
Misappropriation	12
An era of brown envelopes and briefcases	15
Political party moneyboxes	19
A major kick-back	19
A telecom con	21
A cocoa laundromat	23
Godfatherocracy	24
An in-house corruption solution	28
OLIGARCHS, SUPERPOWERS AND PROSTITUTES	37
Oligarchs	37
Superpowers	43
Russia	45
China	47
Russia and disinformation concerning Novichok	48
The oldest university and the oldest profession	49
Prostitutes	51
Proven principles of a state governed by the rule of law	54
Respect for human rights	54
Disinformation	56
Hamáček's equivocations about Vrbětice	58
Drápals and parasites	58
Drápals, or spin doctors	59
Parasite	60
Symbiosis	62
A fusion of interests	64
Pro-Russian chaos	66

THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE STRUCTURES OF POWER 69

Petr Kellner 69

A brief biography of Petr Kellner 69

PPF 74

Česká pojišťovna 74

Kellner and his mouthpiece 75

Problems 76

Failure in a struggle for a bank 77

A Russian shoot-out 81

Killing four birds with one stone 85

Sazka 87

Telecommunications 88

Home Credit 89

Other activities 91

The oligoprostitute Andrej Babiš and Agrofert 93

A brief biography of Andrej Babiš 93

A brief history of Agrofert 101

The Agrofert start-up 101

A general meeting in the fog 107

Petrimex's fate 111

Secret police agent 119

Conflict of interests 122

Subsidies for land owned by another 129

Stork's Nest 131

Bonds to the nominal value of one crown per bond 134

Oligoprostitute 134

A critique of subsidies as a campaign
by Babiš's opponents? 139

Fighting for values with Orbán 145

Penta 149

A characteristic of the group and essential information 149

History of the group 150

Fortuna 152

Dr. Max pharmacies 155

Aero Vodochody 157

Real estate projects 160

The Gorilla Case 161

Other oligarchs, wannabe oligarchs, godfathers, fixers, managers and oligarchs put out to grass 165

THE CONSEQUENCES OF OLIGARCHY AND OLIGARCHIC GOVERNMENT	168
Taking control of everything	168
Personnel policy – the time of servants or enemies	170
Security corps	177
Purges everywhere you look	179
Influence on, or direct control of, law-making	182
Millions of crowns for Hartenberg rather than glasses for those who need them	182
The joy of cut flowers	184
Consumer loans regulation	185
Priorities of subsidies	187
Oligarchic territories and mutual business deals	189
THE CONSEQUENCES OF OLIGARCHY	192
Moral decline	192
Deterioration of the landscape and environment	196
Drought and landscape	197
Forests and bark beetle	199
Breeding social problems	201
HOW TO GET OUT OF THIS	206
Show some initiative	206
National memory	207
Change in gambling	207
Tears at the bottom of the hill	208
Upwards thanks to civil society	209
Straightening the twisted systems	209
Elections	212
Judiciary	215
Decentralisation	218
A trade war	219
Generating personalities	223
Modern history and symbols to refresh memory	226
Challenge	229
About the authors	231
Tomáš Lemešani	231
Ondřej Závodský	232