

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Foreword by Professor The Lord Norton of Louth, University of Hull/House of Lords	xi

A reflection on the challenges posed by digitalisation of labour markets	1
LOURDES MELLA MÉNDEZ, UNIVERSITY OF SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA (SPAIN)

PART I

The impact of new technologies in the labour market	15
1 The Taylor Review 2017 – A critical appreciation on a selection of its legal content	17
JO CARBY-HALL, UNIVERSITY OF HULL (UNITED KINGDOM)
2 The 4 th Industrial Revolution and its impact on the individual employment relationship: general considerations and the regulatory context in Russia	66
DARIA CHERNYAEVA, HIGHER SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS MOSCOW (RUSSIA)
3 Digitalisation vis-à-vis the Indian labour market: pros and cons	79
DR. DURGAMBINI A. PATEL, SAVITRIBAI PHULE PUNE UNIVERSITY (INDIA)
4 The impact of new technologies in the current labour market of selected Arab states	90
DR. ALAA ELTAMIMI, MANSOURA UNIVERSITY (EGYPT)
5 Impacts of social networks in the employment environment – from the traditional subjects to the particular case of employment non-compete clauses	125
DUARTE ABRUNHOSA E SOUSA, UNIVERSITY OF PORTO (PORTUGAL)

- 6 Rebalancing worker rights and property rights in digitalised work 139
JULIA TOMASSETTI, USA/CITY UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG, SCHOOL OF LAW (CHINA)

PART II

The impact of new technologies in the employees' private life 157

- 7 Technological innovation and its impact on the employment contract: special reference to the video surveillance and the intervention of private detectives 159
MARÍA CARMEN LÓPEZ ANIORTE, FRANCISCO MIGUEL ORTIZ
GONZÁLEZ-CONDE AND ANTONIO MEGÍAS-BAS, UNIVERSITY OF MURCIA (SPAIN)
- 8 New technologies and the employee's right to privacy 171
ARTUR RYCAK, ŁAZARSKI UNIVERSITY (POLAND)
- 9 Work-life balance and Industry 4.0 in the legal framework of the European Union 190
TATSIANA USHAKOVA, BELARUSIAN STATE UNIVERSITY (MINSK, BELARUS)
- 10 Digital disconnection as a limit to corporate control of working time 209
SARAI RODRÍGUEZ GONZÁLEZ, UNIVERSITY OF LA LAGUNA (SPAIN)
- 11 The right to disconnect from the workplace: strengths and weaknesses of the French legal framework 222
LOÏC LEROUGE, COMPTRESEC. CNRS-UNIVERSITY OF BORDEAUX (FRANCE)

PART III

The impact of new technologies on the labour process 231

- 12 The digital evidence in the labour process and the fundamental rights of the employee 233
LOURDES MELLA MÉNDEZ
- 13 The probative value and effectiveness of the evidence obtained through email and messaging in the control of the workplace activity 247
FRANCISCA FERRANDO GARCÍA, MONSERRATE RODRÍGUEZ EGIO AND ANTONIO MEGÍAS-BAS, UNIVERSITY OF MURCIA (SPAIN)