

CONTENTS

PREFACE	95
CONTENTS	99
LIST OF FIGURES	102
MONEYS, WEIGHTS, AND MEASURES	103
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS OF MANUSCRIPTS	104
 Chapter
I. INTRODUCTION	105
1. A Point of View toward History.....	105
2. Cultural Difficulties Complicating the Relations between China and the West.....	106
3. Résumé of the Commercial and Cultural Relations be- tween England and China Prior to 1750.....	111
4. A New Epoch in Anglo-Chinese Relations: the Problem of the Present Study.....	117
 II. A CRUCIAL TEN YEARS—THE LEGALIZATION AND FIXATION OF THE CANTON SYSTEM (1751-1761).....	 119
1. The Birth of British Cultural Interest in China (1750-1770).....	119
2. Efforts to Abolish the Security Merchant System and the Establishment of the Hongist Monopoly (1751-1755).....	121
3. The Confinement of Trade to Canton, the Legalization of the Canton System, and the Establishment of the Co-hong (1756-1761).....	128
4. The Canton System of Trade after 1760 and Its Significance	133
 III. THE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S TRADE WITH CHINA (1760-1800)	 142
1. General View of British Trade at Canton: Trends during the Period (1764-1800).....	142
2. The Commutation Act (August 20, 1784).....	146
3. The Company's Trade: A General View (1760-1800).....	151
4. The Company's Import Trade in Goods (1775-1795).....	154
5. Attempts to Introduce New Articles into China.....	160
6. The Company's Export Trade (1760-1800).....	162
 IV. PRIVATE, COUNTRY, AND FOREIGN TRADE AND THE STRUGGLE FOR CONTROL OF THE CHINA TRADE (1764-1800).....	 170
1. Private Trade at Canton (1764-1800).....	170
2. Country Trade at Canton (1764-1800).....	174
3. How British Trade at Canton Was Financed.....	180
4. Continental European and American Trade at Canton and the Struggle for Control of the China Trade (1764-1800)	186
5. Commercial and Industrial Expansion of England during the Eighteenth Century	195
6. Significance of These Commercial and Economic De- velopments	197

V. EVENTS LEADING TO THE FIRST BRITISH EMBASSY TO CHINA (1760-1786)	199
1. Financial Troubles with the Hong Merchants and the Proposal of an Embassy (1760-1782).....	199
2. Financial Difficulties of the Company and Government: the Commutation Act and the Plan to Dominate the China Trade (1783-1786).....	212
3. Treatment of H. M. Ships and the Activity of Country Ships in China (1765-1785).....	220
4. The Question of Criminal Jurisdiction: the Lady Hughes Affair (1772-1785).....	225
5. Growing Connections between India and China: the Smith-Dundas Correspondence (1774-1786).....	231
6. Conclusion and Summary.....	234
VI. THE CATHCART EMBASSY AND EVENTS FOLLOWING IT (1787-1791)	236
1. Preliminary Negotiation Relative to the Cathcart Mission (Spring to July 31, 1787).....	236
2. The Debts of Chinese Merchants and the Drafting of the Instructions to the Ambassador (May to August 31, 1787)....	240
3. The Ambassador's Salary and Internal Arrangements of the Embassy (August 7 to October, 1787).....	244
4. Final Discussions with the Private Creditors (September 12, 1787 to February 23, 1788).....	248
5. Final Preparations for the Embassy (October to December 21, 1787).....	251
6. The Instruction to the Ambassador and Sir Richard Strachan and the King's Letter (November 30, 1787).....	255
7. The Demise of the Ambassador and the Embassy (1787-88)..	260
8. The Abandonment and the Revival of the Idea of Sending an Embassy to China (1788-91).....	264
VII. PREPARATIONS FOR THE MACARTNEY EMBASSY (1791-1792) 272
1. Preliminary Discussions and Proposals (October 1791—January 19, 1792).....	272
2. The Controversy between Macartney and the Chairs over the Arrangements for the Embassy (January 20—February 14, 1792).....	279
3. The Appointment of a Secret and Superintending Committee to Reform the Canton Establishment (February 14—May 5, 1792).....	284
4. Detailed Preparations for the Embassy and the Promotion of Macartney to the Rank of Viscount (March 17—June 28, 1792).....	290
5. The Northern Industrialists, the Private Creditors, and the Designs of Russia and Sweden (June 9—August 15, 1792)	295
6. Final Preparations for the Embassy and the Promise of Dutch Cooperation (July 29—September 26, 1792).....	299
7. Macartney and Gower's Instructions: Aims of the Embassy..	307
VIII. THE MACARTNEY EMBASSY IN CHINA (1792-1793).....	312
1. Work of the Commissioners at Canton and the Chinese Attitude toward the Embassy (September 20, 1792—January 31, 1793).....	312

2. Voyage of the Embassy to Macao and Taku and Events in China (September 26, 1792—July 25, 1793).....	318
3. From Taku to Tungchow and the Question of the Kotow (July 24—August 16, 1793).....	325
4. From Tungchow to Jehol and the Settlement of the Ceremonial (August 16—September 14, 1793).....	332
5. The Imperial Audience at Jehol and Events at Canton (September 14—September 28, 1793).....	339
6. Attempts at Negotiations in Peking and the Dismissal of the Embassy (September 26—October 7, 1793).....	345
 IX. THE RETURN OF THE EMBASSY TO ENGLAND AND AN ESTIMATE OF ITS ACHIEVEMENTS (1793-1800).....	 351
1. The Favorable Assurances of Sung Yün during the Journey to Hangchow (October 7—November 14, 1793).....	351
2. Discussions with the New Viceroy from Hangchow to Canton (November 14—December 19, 1793).....	356
3. Final Discussions at Canton and the Return to England (December 19, 1793—September 4, 1794).....	359
4. The Achievements of the Embassy in the Light of Subsequent Events (1794-1800).....	365
5. Various Attitudes toward the Embassy (1794-1926).....	374
6. Causes for the Failure of the Embassy: a Final Estimate.....	379
 X. CONCLUSION	 385
 APPENDICES	 391
I. Woollens Imported into China by the East India Company (1760-1800)	391
II. Metals Imported into China by the East India Company (1760-1800)	392
III. Indian Goods Imported into China by the East India Company (1760-1800)	393
IV. Total Goods Imported into China from England and India by the East India Company (1760-1800).....	394
V. Tea Exported from China and Sold by the East India Company in England (1760-1800).....	395
VI. Goods and Stores Exported from China by the East India Company (1760-1800)	396
VII. Value of and Profit on Goods Exported from China by the East India Company (1775-1815).....	397
VIII. Net Profit of the East India Company upon Its Trade with China (1775-1815).....	398
IX. Silver Imported into China from England and India by the East India Company (1760-1800).....	399
X. Money Realized at Canton through Bills, Certificates, Bonds, Freight, etc. (1760-1800).....	400
XI. Private Trade at Canton (1764-1800).....	401
XII. Country Trade at Canton (1764-1800).....	402

BIBLIOGRAPHY	403
1. Handbooks, Manuals, and Bibliographical Aids.....	403
2. Manuscript Sources.....	405
3. Published Contemporary Sources.....	413
4. Chinese Materials.....	424
5. Periodicals and Newspapers.....	426
6. Secondary Materials.....	426
INDEX	431

LIST OF FIGURES

1. Canton River	138
2. Total British and the Company's Trade at Canton (1760-1800)	145
3. East India Company's Imports into Canton (1760-1800)	155
4. East India Company's Exports from Canton (1760-1800)	163
5. Private and Country Trade at Canton (1770-1800)	174
6. Tea Exported from Canton (1768-1796)	188
7. Foreign Exports from Canton (1764-1806)	192