

---

Contents

---

Preface	ix
About the Contributors	xv
Dedication	xxi

---

Introduction: The Six Principles of Integrated Character Education	1
Timothy Rusnak

Principle One

---

Character Education Is Not a Subject; It Is Part of Every Subject

1. Integrating Character in the Life of the School	9
Timothy Rusnak
2. Making Character Work	20
William J. Switala

Principle Two

---

Integrated Character Education Is Action Education

3. Character, Curriculum, and Action Education 33
Thomas Farrelly
4. Learning Beyond the Classroom 45
James Antis

Principle Three

---

A Positive School Environment Helps Build Character

5. Building a Positive Classroom Environment 57
Mark John Tierno
6. More Than a Good Lesson Plan 69
Kenneth Barbour

Principle Four

---

Character Development Is Encouraged Through Administrative Policy and Practice

7. Leadership, Character Growth, and Authenticity 83
James E. Henderson
8. Making Leadership Count 93
Robert D. Myers

Principle Five

---

Empowered Teachers Promote Character Development

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| 9. Constructing Learning and CharacterFrank M. Ribich | 105 |
| 10. Fostering Character GrowthJudy Heasley            | 114 |

Principle Six

---

The School and Community Are Vital Partners in Developing Character

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| 11. Community, Character, and SchoolingV. Robert Agostino | 125 |
| 12. Partnering With the CommunityDonna K. Milanovich      | 133 |
| Epilogue: Getting StartedPaul F. Black                    | 145 |
| Resource: Organizations and Programs                          | 155 |
| Index   | 159 |