

Contents

List of tables	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Biographies	xi

Introduction to the volume	1
----------------------------	---

SECTION 1

Philosophical issues

1 Moral relativism and virtue CHRISTIAN B. MILLER	11
2 Meeting the challenges to the universality of virtue JONATHAN JACOBS	26
3 Socratic piety and the universality of virtue RANDALL CURREN	41
4 Evaluative attitudes as the motivational structures of ethical virtues JONATHAN WEBBER	55
5 The essential sociality of Aristotelian virtue JENNIFER ROTHSCHILD	69
6 Neo-Aristotelianism, the universality of virtues, and the challenge of germline genome editing NANCY E. SNOW	82

SECTION 2

Psychological issues

97

- 7 Morality as a basic psychological need: preliminary evidence 101

ERANDA JAYAWICKREME, MIKE PRENTICE, AND WILLIAM FLEESON

- 8 Virtue and the specificity principle: an integrative approach to understanding character 117

ELISE D. MURRAY AND JONATHAN M. TIRRELL

- 9 Diversity, deviance, and virtue within imperfect moral communities 133

JENNIFER COLE WRIGHT

SECTION 3

Practical and educational issues

149

- 10 Educating virtues in a plural world: MacIntyre, Williams, and Nussbaum on moral education 153

JAMES MACALLISTER

- 11 Education and upbringing in a super-diverse society: on the cultivation of the double gaze 168

DORET DE RUYTER

- 12 Between the local and global: placing the virtuous professional practitioner in context 182

SARAH BANKS

- 13 Social work in a pluralistic society: realising the universal claim of *phronesis 198

DIETER WEBER AND HEIDRUN WULFEKÜHLER

- 14 Local virtues: the case of the circus 213

RON BEADLE AND ANGUS ROBSON

- 15 Confucian virtue ethics and Confucian character education 227

YI-LIN CHEN

Index

241