

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
List of abbreviations	xii
Preface	xv
1 Introduction Pier Luigi Parcu, Giorgio Monti and Marco Botta	1
2 Is the notion of aid broadening or shrinking over time, and if so, why? A subjective view on the rationale of the case law Massimo Merola and Filippo Caliento	18
3 State aid control: recent developments and some remaining challenges Alberto Heimler	54
4 Infrastructures and SGEI: the scope of State aid control and its impact on national policies Ginevra Bruzzone and Marco Boccaccio	70
5 State aid policy in the broadband sector: public announcements, investments and crowding out Pier Luigi Parcu and Maria Alessandra Rossi	99
6 The functions of national courts in the private enforcement of State aid law Fernando Pastor-Merchante and Giorgio Monti	121
7 New trends in State aid enforcement by national courts: damages claims and the State aid cooperation tools Simone Donzelli and Bernadette Willemot-Nieuwenhuys	141
8 A recipe for confusion: parallel treaties and parallel proceedings in State aid cases Adam Scott	170

9 Recent developments in German State aid jurisprudence: a scrutiny from the perspective of the preliminary reference procedure (Art. 267 TFEU) 194
Josef Weinzierl

10 Enforcement of State aid law at the national level: recent trends in Spain 218
Juan Jorge Piernas López

Index 240