

Contents:

Foreword

- Elzbieta Stadtmuller, Executive Director of the conference* v
Zlatko Šabič, President of the Central and East European Studies Association vi
The Central and Eastern European International Studies Association and Young
Scholars: A Long Standing Partnership

Preface

- Eva Cihelková, Head of the Research Plan, Faculty of International Relations,* ix
University of Economics, Prague
Governance: The Way to Study Diverse Reactions to the Challenges of Globalization

Session 1.4

Globalization and Stability of the Contemporary System of International Relations: Global versus Regional Governance

- Zuzana Lehmannová:* 3
Globalization: Inner Imbalance of the Process
Jan Martin Rolenc: 12
Promoting Democracy as a Means of Peace and Security Policy: The Example of Sweden

Session 1.7

Multilateralism and New Regionalism: Looking for the New World Economic Order

- Pavel Hnát:* 31
Multilateralism and New Regionalism: Impacts on Global Economic Governance
Dana Steinmetzová 43
Multilateralism and New Regionalism: Governance of World Economy –
International Investment Agreements
Zuzana Stuchlíková: 56
Multilateralism and New Regionalism: Changing Japan's Approach in the Global Context

Session 2.2

Monetary Regionalism and Global Governance II

- Jan Němec:* 79
Prospects for Mercosur after Chávez Joining in: Populist Threat to the Integration
Bloc?

Session 3.3
New Challenges in the 21st Century, the EU, Migration and the Environment
Vlasta Hitzgerová:	91
Support for Organic Farming in the EU: A Contribution to Implementing the Doha Agenda
Session 3.4
Democracy: Possibilities and Challenges in the 21st Century
Lucie Pospěchová:	107
Law versus Politics?
Session 4.3
Sub-regionalism
Petr Vymětal:	115
Networked Governance
Session 4.5
Economic Competitiveness
Zuzana Potužáková:	129
Current Situation of the EU Labour Market
Session 6.5
EU and the Third World
Anna Borgström:	139
Africa and Globalisation: The Role of Regional Trade Agreements for Africa's Future Economic Development
Session 6.6
EU in the Global Economy
Josef Bič:	155
Competitive Position of the EU in the Global Economy in the Context of Eastern Enlargement
Kateřina Joklová:	176
Movement of Natural Persons under GATS and EU Law: A Comparative Study
Barbora Vondrušková:	200
EU Priorities in the Three Pillars of the WTO and their Comparison to the American Ones
Ingeborg Němcová:	210
EU in the Global Economy: Aspects of Governance. Discussant's opinion	