

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Introduction: The Public Face of African New Religious Movements in Diaspora Afe Adogame	1
1 The Discourse about 'Africa' in Religious Communities in Brazil: How Africa Becomes the Ultimate Source of Authenticity in Afro-Brazilian Religions Bettina E. Schmidt	29
2 Irrecha : A Traditional Oromo Religious Ritual Goes Global Asebe Regassa and Meron Zeleke	45
3 Self-Representation by Black Majority Christianity in Britain Abel Ugba	65
4 The Transnational Dynamics of Black Jews in France Aurélien Mokoko Gampiot and Cécile Coquet-Mokoko	85
5 'Take Over Asia for God!': The Public Face of African Pentecostal Churches in China Heidi Østbø Haugen	105
6 Uncovering an Alternative Story: Examining the Religious and Social Lives of Afro-Caribbean Youth in London and New York City Janice McLean-Farrell	125
7 Juggling Multiple Identities to Overcome Minority Status: Young Congolese Pentecostals in Montreal (Quebec) Géraldine Mossière	147

- 8 'Living by the Spirit': African Christian Communities in Sweden 163
Anne Kubai
- 9 'Penetrating the Unseen': The Role of Religion and Spiritual Practices in the Senegalese Boat Migration Process 191
Henrietta M. Nyamnjoh
- 10 'The Coca-Cola of Churches Arrives': Nigeria's Redeemed Christian Church of God in Brazil 215
Laura Premack
- 11 Nigerian Pentecostals in Britain: Towards Prosperity or Consumerism? 233
Israel Olofinjana
- 12 Public Perception of Witchcraft Accusations, Stereotyping and Child Abuse: A Case Study of Britain's Black Majority Churches 255
Babatunde Adedibu
- 13 The Strangers in our Midst: Issues of Misunderstanding between African Migrant Churches in Germany and the Mainstream German Churches 275
Garnet Parris
- Index* 287