

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Figures, Tables, and Boxes	ix
Preface	xi
Section I Getting Acquainted	1
1 Why Religion?	3
2 “You Believe What?”: A Tour of Religious Belief and Ritual Practice	16
3 Downloading God, “Big-Box” Churches, and the Crystal Shop around the Corner: Religious Adaptation in the Digital Age	37
Section II The Shape and Politics of Religion	57
4 Can’t We All Just Get Along?: Cohesion and Conflict in Religion	59
5 News Flash: God’s Not Dead (and Neither is the Goddess!)	71
6 The Fight for Survival: Religious Polarization and the Shrinking Middle	86
7 Divine Rights and Fighting the Power: How Can Religion Simultaneously Block and Encourage Social Change?	97
Section III Religion, Identity, and Social Inequalities	115
8 What are God’s Pronouns?: Does Religion Work Differently for Men, Women, and Trans Persons?	117
9 Adam, Eve, and Steve: How Changing Dynamics of Sexuality Challenge and Transform Religion	134
10 Blessed are the Poor, Woe to the Rich, But What about the Middle?: Are There Class Differences in How Religion Works?	150
11 Religion and Race: A Double-Edged Sword	162
12 Who Brought the Enchiladas to My Bar Mitzvah?: Immigration and Religious Change	173

Section IV More Big Questions	187
13 The End of Days? Religion Meets Climate Change	189
14 Do We Need God to Do Good?	200
Bibliography	211
Index	227