

Contents

List of Figures	iii
List of authors	viii
Foreword.....	xii
Burial Mounds in Europe and Japan: An Introduction	1
Werner Steinhaus and Thomas Knopf
Hallstatt Burial Mounds Then and Now: Excavations and Changing Images in the History of Research	15
Nils Müller-Scheeßel
Excavating the Mounded Tombs of the Kofun Period of the Japanese Archipelago: A History of Research and Methods	31
Tatsuo NAKAKUBO
Bronze Age Burial Mounds in Northern and Central Europe: Their Origins and the Development of Diversity in Time and Space	47
Frank Nikulka
Emergence and Development of Burial Mounds in the Yayoi Period	57
Hisashi NOJIMA
Princes, Chiefs or Big Men? Burial Mounds as Reflections of Social Structure in the Hallstatt Period	69
Wolfram Schier
Social Stratification and the Formation of Mounded Tombs in the Kofun Period of Protohistoric Japan	87
Ken'ichi SASAKI
Burial Mound/Landscape-Relations. Approaches Put forward by European Prehistoric Archaeology	100
Ariane Ballmer
Mounded Tomb Building during the Kofun Period: Location and Landscape	110
Akira SEIKE
Burial Mounds and Settlements. Their Relations in the Late Hallstatt and Early La Tène-Period (6th–4th century BC)	118
Ines Balzer
The Relationship between Mounded Tombs, Settlements, and Residences in the Kofun Period: Reflecting Social Changes?	137
Takehiko MATSUGI
Aspects of Early Iron in Central Europe	149
Manfred K. H. Eggert
Iron and its Relation to Mounded Tombs on the Japanese Islands	166
Hisashi NOJIMA
The Development of Metalworking and the Formation of Political Power in the Japanese Archipelago	173
Takehiko MATSUGI

Monuments for the Living and the Dead: Early Celtic Burial Mounds and Central Places of the Heuneburg Region.....

Dirk Krause and Leif Hansen

Mounded Tombs of the Kofun Period: Monuments of Administration and Expressions of Power Relationships.....

Shin'ya FUKUNAGA

Burial Mounds in Broader Perspective. Visibility, Ritual and Power

Chris Scarre

An Introduction to the Yukinoyama Mounded Tomb

Naoya UEDA

The Significance of the Nonaka Mounded Tomb.....

Joseph Ryan