

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| List of contributors | xi |
| Preface and acknowledgements | xiii |
| List of abbreviations | xv |
| | |
| Rights and responsibilities in a gendered world: equality in/between China and the Nordic countries | 1 |
| PAULINE STOLTZ AND MARINA SVENSSON | |
| | |
| PART I | |
| Gender equality, citizenship and human rights | 25 |
| | |
| Introduction to Part I: setting the stage | 27 |
| PAULINE STOLTZ | |
| | |
| 1 'It is the people who serve the government': interview with Ai Xiaoming | 31 |
| CECILIA MILWERTZ | |
| | |
| 2 'Today all the discussions and all the conflicts are about intersectionality': interview with Tiina Rosenberg | 46 |
| PAULINE STOLTZ AND MARINA SVENSSON | |
| | |
| 3 Advancing women's international human rights in China | 59 |
| SHARON K. HOM | |
| | |
| 4 Gender, diversity and transnational citizenship | 74 |
| BIRTE SIIM | |

PART II

Controversies and challenges 93

Introduction to Part II: the cases 95

PAULINE STOLTZ AND MARINA SVENSSON

5 Speaking out and space-making: the emergence of gay identities and communities in China 99

ZHONGXIN SUN

6 Privileged irresponsibility, structural responsibility and moral contradictions among employers in the EU domestic work sector 116

ANNA GAVANAS

7 The safety and health of female migrant workers in China 134

SHEN TAN

8 Globalisation, diaspora politics and gender: Muslims in Sweden 147

CATARINA KINNVALL

9 Gender equality and human rights: the significance of ICCPR in China 165

HUAWEN LIU

10 National implementation of human rights: a threat to 'representative democracy'? 179

HEGE SKJEIE

Index 189