

Contents

Read this first	viii
A: The importance of vocabulary learning	1
1 Devote time to vocabulary teaching	2
2 Raise learners' awareness of the importance of vocabulary	3
B: Selecting vocabulary to teach	4
3 Prioritise the most common vocabulary items	5
4 Include multi-word items	6
5 Teach word families selectively	7
6 Teach occasional idioms and proverbs	8
7 Teach basic texting vocabulary	9
8 Use published vocabulary lists with caution	10
9 Prioritise internationally acceptable items	11
10 Avoid introducing lists of words that are all 'the same kind of thing'	12
11 Teach useful classroom vocabulary early on	13
C: Introducing new vocabulary	14
12 Teach written and spoken forms together	15
13 Keep metalanguage (e.g., adjective) to a minimum	16
14 Teach first the most common form of a word	17
15 Teach one meaning at a time	18
16 Teach collocations (links with other words)	19
17 Teach how new words behave grammatically	20
18 Teach new vocabulary both in context and in isolation	21
19 Draw attention to problematic pronunciation	22
20 Draw attention to problematic spelling	23
21 Write up new vocabulary on the board and leave it there	24
22 Make sure learners write down new items	25
23 Make learners aware of common mistakes associated with a new item	26
D: Clarifying meanings of new vocabulary	27
24 Explain meanings yourself, rather than sending learners to a dictionary	28
25 Link the new vocabulary to items previously taught	29
26 Explain meanings briefly	30
27 Use the learners' mother tongue (L1) to help clarify	31
28 Use pictures and realia	32
29 Use mime, gesture, facial expression	33
30 Vary the way you explain	34
31 Teach where it is appropriate/inappropriate to use a new item	35
32 Teach connotations	36
33 Avoid asking learners to study corpus data themselves	37

E: Vocabulary review and practice	38
34 Practise a lot	39
35 Avoid meaningless copying or repetition of the new items	40
36 Give tasks that get learners to retrieve	41
37 Make exercises interesting to do	42
38 Personalize vocabulary review	43
39 Review after a time-gap	44
40 Try to avoid word games	45
41 Use collaborative activities	46
42 Encourage learners to use new vocabulary in their own speech and writing	47
F: Teaching vocabulary from a reading text	48
43 Be selective in deciding which vocabulary to teach	49
44 Use vocabulary profilers	50
45 Check if there are useful multi-word items in the text	51
46 Draw attention to vocabulary learners have been taught before	52
47 Encourage learners to choose which vocabulary to learn	53
48 Pre-teach some of the new vocabulary, sometimes	54
49 Be wary of asking learners to infer meanings from context	55
G: Vocabulary enrichment and expansion	56
50 Initiate deliberate vocabulary expansion activities	57
51 Teach new meanings for old words	58
52 Use 'Word of the day'	59
53 Use dictionaries and thesauri for vocabulary expansion	60
54 Teach prefixes and suffixes selectively	61
55 Explore synonyms	62
56 Compare target language words or phrases with their L1 translations	63
H: Activities and materials for vocabulary review and expansion	64
57 Use dictation-based activities	65
58 Challenge learners to recall	66
59 Ask learners to create contexts	67
60 Use 'Pass it round'	68
61 Get learners to mingle	69
62 Use word cards	70
63 Include translation activities	71
64 Use open-ended tasks (questions with lots of right answers)	72
65 Use yes/no worksheets	73
I: Testing vocabulary	74
66 Do brief weekly quizzes	75
67 Include a vocabulary component in general tests	76
68 Include an optional component in tests	77
69 Test productive not just receptive knowledge	78
70 Get learners to design their own test items	79

71	Use translation for testing	80
72	Test (also) aspects of vocabulary other than written form and meaning	81
J: Encourage independent vocabulary learning		82
73	Encourage out-of-class vocabulary learning	83
74	Teach spelling rules	84
75	Teach dictionary skills	85
76	Introduce advanced learners to phonemic symbols	86
77	Encourage use of online tools for vocabulary learning	87
References		88
Further recommended reading		89
Glossary		90
Index		93