

CONTENTS

LIST OF PLATES	vii
LIST OF TABLES, MAPS, AND FIGURES	ix
PREFACE TO THE 1984 EDITION	xiii
PREFACE	xxv
ABBREVIATIONS	xxvii
INTRODUCTION	i

PART I: THE LONDON LABOUR MARKET AND THE CASUAL LABOUR PROBLEM

1. London as an Industrial Centre	19
2. Seasonality of Production	33
3. Casual Labour: Numbers and Occupations	52
4. The Structure of the Casual Labour Market	67
5. The Development of the Casual Labour Market in East London	99
6. Casual Labour and Rural Immigration: the Theory of Urban Degeneration	127
7. The Crisis of the Inner Industrial Perimeter	152

PART II: HOUSING AND THE CASUAL POOR

8. The Transformation of Central London	159
9. The Search for a Palliative before 1875	179
10. Cleansing the Augean Stables	197
11. The Housing Crisis in the 1880s	215
Supplementary Tables for Part II	231

PART III: MIDDLE-CLASS LONDON AND THE PROBLEM OF THE CASUAL POOR

12. Prologue	239
--------------	-----

13. The Deformation of the Gift: the Problem of the 1860s	241
14. The Economics of 'Demoralization'	262
15. 'Moralizing' the Casual Poor	271
16. From 'Demoralization' to 'Degeneration': the Threat of Outcast London	281
17. The Impact of the Dock Strike	315
18. Epilogue: The Casual Poor in the Age of Imperialism	322
19. Postscript: Socialism and the Casual Poor	337
APPENDIX 1: Notes on the Reclassification of the 1861 and 1891 Censuses into Social and Industrial Groupings	350
APPENDIX 2: Statistical Tables, Charts, and Figures	358
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	394
INDEX	413