

Contents

The Thirteen Tombs

001

Where Do the Emperors and Empresses Go When They Die? In the Underground “Forbidden City” They Gather. 001

Changling

009

The Prince of Yan Builds Up a Big Army; A War Breaks Out Between Uncle and Nephew. 011

The Ruthless One Wins in a Fratricidal Strife; Many Are the Innocents Killed by Sword and Arrow. 015

Disturbances Arise on the Northern Frontier; A Tomb Is Built Before Moving the Capital. 017

Sailing to the Western Ocean to Show Power and Good Will; No Traces of the Missing Emperor Jianwen Can Be Found. 023

The Emperor Leads Punitive Expeditions; He Dies of Illness at Yumuchuan. 025

Concubines Are Cruelly Buried with the Dead Emperor; The Eastern and Western Wells Are in Ruins 028

Xianling

031

The Crown Prince Is Insecure in His Position; Challenge Comes from His Two Brothers. 031

Empress and Concubines Are Long at Odds; A Cup of Wine Heightens the Suspicion. 034

Jingling

037

The Grandfather Goes on an Expedition; He Places His Hope on His Eldest Grandson. 038

Emperor Xuande Indulges in Cricket Fight; The Hobby Becomes Widespread. 040

Lady Sun Supersedes the Empress; Empress Hu Is Converted to Buddhism. 042

Yuling

047

The Child Emperor Is Assisted by Three Teachers; He Is Taken Prisoner by the Mongols at Tumu. 047

Zhu Qizhen Is Honored in the Desert Area; The Father Emperor Becomes a Prisoner in South Palace. 051

The Emperor Is Enthroned Again; Thousands of People Are Promoted. 053

Zhu Qizhen Shows Kindness in His Last Words; Imperial Concubine Zhou Fights for Place in the Tomb. 056

Jingtailing

059

Absence of the Emperor Disgraces the Court; Zhu Qiyu Takes the Throne in the Crisis. 059

A New Emperor Sits in the Throne; Empress Wang Suffers for Her Outspokenness. 062

Maoling

065

The Crown Prince Is Slighted and Deposed; The Emperor Learns Social Morals from Operas. 066

Imperial Concubine Wan Is Doted on as Never Before; Zhu Jianshen Depos the Empress on a Flimsy Excuse. 070

Ji Shu Hides Herself Outside the Palace; The Son Sees His Father for the First Time at Six. 073

Tailing

075

The Young Emperor Is on Guard Against Palace Plot; Imposters of the Emperor's Relatives Are Shown Up. 076

The Emperor Worships Buddha and Makes Pills of Immortality; He is Hoodwinked by Eunuchs Who Take Away His Money. 079

Kangling

081

The New Emperor Visits Brothels in Disguise; The Leopard House Is Built for Sensual Pleasure. 082

The Emperor Womanizes Noisily at Xuanfu And Fights a Mock Battle Like Children at Play. 083

The Emperor Tours Mountains and Rivers with Pleasure; The Boat with the Disguised Fisherman in It Capsizes. 087

Yongling

091

Court Officials Are Dismissed in a Great Debate; The Emperor Gathers Followers and Confers Title on His Father. 091

A Tomb Patterned on Changling Is Built; It Exhausts the People and Drains the Treasury. 094

The Emperor Is Misled by Heretical Taoist Priests; He Dies in Pursuit of Immortality. 099

The Emperor Is a Suspicious and Peevish Man; He Is Nearly Strangled by Angry Palace Maids. 101

Zhaoling

103

Superstitious Belief Separates Father and Son; The Prince Lives Away from the Palace for 13 Years. 104

Two Girls Come from Two Different Families; They Later Become Two Empress Dowagers. 107

A Virtuous Official Encourages Thrifty Spending; Approved by Empress Dowager, an Old Tomb Is Put to Use. 111

Dingling

115

The Young Man Is Concerned About Things After Death; He Acts in Total Disregard of Ancestral Traditions. 117

The Emperor's Favor Leads to Sorrow and Grievances; Lady Zheng Fails to Realize Her Fond Dream. 120

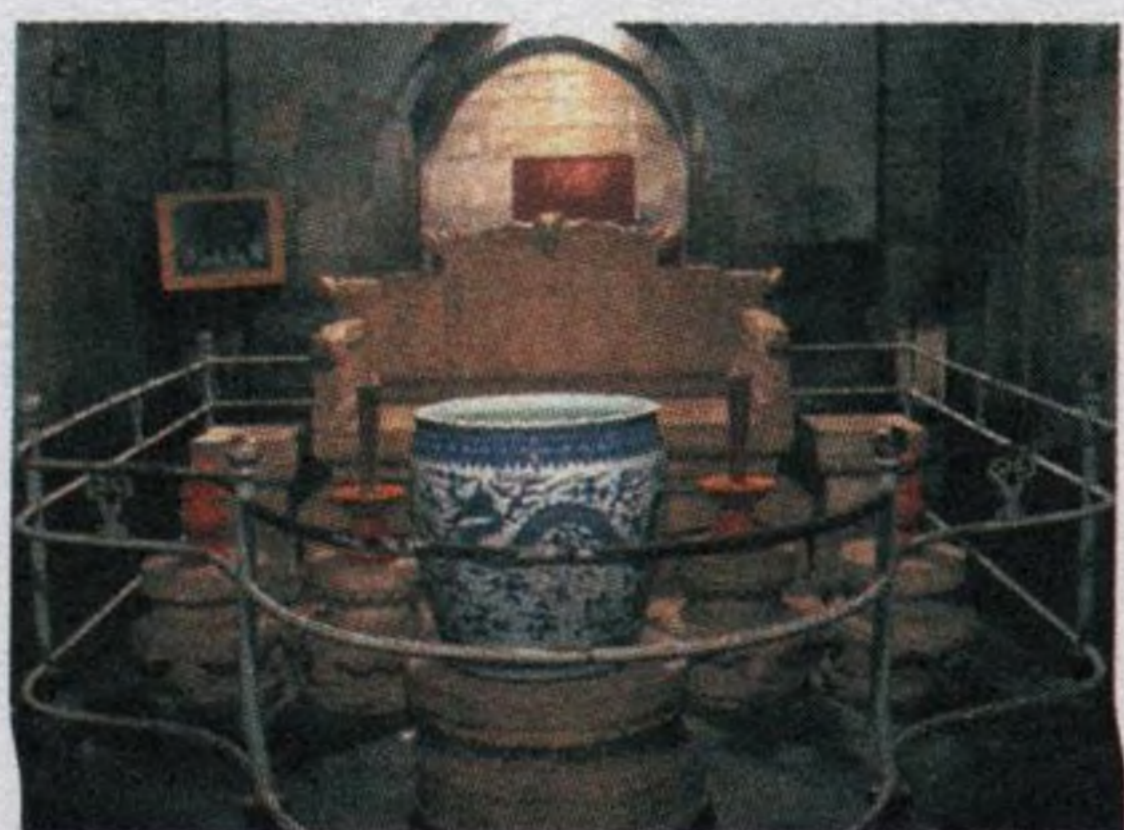

Marrying Off the Emperor's Daughter Is an Important Event; The Future Son-in-Law Is Selected from Behind a Curtain. 125

Dingling Is Excavated After Three Diggings; What Happened in History 400 Years Ago? 130

The Emperor's Inner Palace Has Many Halls and Chambers; The Underground Palace Boasts Beamless Buildings. 137

Notes on the Artifacts Unearthed

144

All the Land Under the Sky Belongs to the Emperor; There Is Gold Everywhere in the Imperial Palace. 144

The Emperor Represents All the Admirable Virtues; His Rights and Wrongs Are Judged by Later People. 149

The Mother Is Honored Because of Her Son; The Baby's Clothes Are Pitiably Mementoes. 155

Magic Herbs and Elixirs of Life Are Offered 159

to the Emperor; Court Physicians Swallow
Medicine Before the Emperor.

Qingling

163

A Strange Incident Occurs in the Palace; Scapegoats Are Put to Death. 167

The Emperor Is Overcome by Sorrow and Weariness; A “Red Pill” Sends Him to the Other World. 170

Deling

175

The Emperor Leaves State and Family Affairs to Others; With Manual Dexterity, He Becomes a Skilled Carpenter. 176

A Fight for “Companion” Breaks Out in the Palace; The Emperor Passes Judgment on a Strange Case. 179

The Emperor Puts Up Notices to Choose a Wife; The Unhappy Empress Zhang Is Victimized. 182

Siling

188

Purging the Eunuchs, the Emperor Tries to Revive the Dynasty; Acting Too Hastily, He Fails to Employ the Right People. 188

The Insurgent Army Lays Siege to the Capital; The Emperor Is Deserted by the People and Officials. 193

The Emperor’s Three Sons Attend His Funeral; The Last Emperor Is Buried in a Concubine’s Tomb. 198