

Contents

Foreword	ix
List of Tables and Figures	x
Introduction: Setting the Scene	1
1 Social Work and Disability: Old and New Directions	6
The role of social services departments	6
Social work services for disabled people	11
The individual model of disability	15
A social model of disability	23
The social model and its implications for social work	27
Conclusions	30
2 Thinking about Disability	33
General views of disability	33
Current professional definitions of disability	35
Functional definitions of disability	37
Self-definitions	48

3	The Causes of Impairment and the Creation of Disability	50
	Prevention	53
	Medical knowledge and the social work task	54
	A framework for intervention	56
	Assessment	60
4	Disability in the Family	64
	Children with disabilities	66
	Growing up with a disability: making relationships	71
	Sex and disability	74
	Disability and marriage	76
	Growing old with a disability	79
5	Living with Disabilities	83
	The legal situation	85
	Residential accommodation for disabled people: a provision under attack	87
	Alternative models of residential care	91
	Social work, the social model and residential care	94
	Day-care facilities	98
6	The Legal and Social Context of Disability	101
	The legal rights of disabled people	101
	Education	106
	Employment	108
	Welfare rights	111
	The rights of disabled people: ways forward?	115

7	Conclusions: Some Professional and Organisational Aspects of Social Work with Disabled People	118
	Models of social work practice with disabled people	118
	The organisational context of social work practice	124
	Some ways forward?	132
	A Guide to Further Reading	138
	Bibliography	141
	Index	147