

Table of Contents

Map of the Central Highlands

I. Summary and Recommendations	1
II. Introduction.....	8
An Independent Homeland	9
The Government Response	10
Rhetoric and Reality	11
III. A History of Resistance to Central Government Control	13
Customary Lands	15
The Dega People—An Oral History	16
Promises of Autonomy: The French	17
Promises of Autonomy: Hanoi	19
The 1958 Bajaraka Movement.....	20
The Second Indochina War: 1960-1975	21
The FULRO Rebellions: 1964-1965.....	23
Easing of Tensions in the mid-1960s.....	24
The Highlands After 1975	25
IV. Government Policies Toward Ethnic Minorities	28
“Mutual Respect, Participation, and Equal Rights”	29
Fixed Fields, Fixed Settlements.....	31
Regreening the Barren Hills	33
V. Population Explosion: The Impact of Migration	35
Organized Migration.....	35
Spontaneous Migration.....	36
The Coffee Connection.....	38
Soaring Population: The Example of Dak Lak	39
VI. The 1990s: Escalation in Land Conflicts.....	42
Lack of Land Security	43
State Confiscation of Land	45
“A Plea for Help”	47
Lack of Government Action	48
No Response after Five Years: The Conflict in D Village.....	49
Intersection of Land Conflicts and Religious Persecution.....	50
Escalating Tensions over Land	52
“One Day We Will be the Ones in Charge”	54

VII. Repression of Ethnic Minority Protestants.....	56
Christianity in the Highlands	59
Government Statistics: Protestantism in the Central Highlands (1975-2000).....	60
The House Church Movement.....	61
Party Directives to Suppress Minority Christians.....	64
Pressure on House Churches	67
Arbitrary Fines and Forced Labor	69
VIII. Ethnic Discrimination	71
Poverty.....	72
Education.....	75
Pressure to Limit Family Size.....	77
IX. The Movement for Land Rights and Religious Freedom	82
The Run-up to the Protests	82
Government Surveillance	84
The January 2001 Crackdown	86
The February 2001 Demonstrations	86
February 2: Pleiku	87
February 3: Buon Ma Thuot	89
Clashes Between Police and Protesters.....	91
February 5-6: Ea H'leo.....	92
February 14: Kontum.....	93
Coerced or Willing Participants?	94
X. Government Response: The Initial Reaction	96
The Immediate Response: Arrests and Police Sweeps	96
Surveillance and Interrogations	100
Police Torture	102
Targeting of Christians	103
XI. Increasing the Pressure	105
Travel Restrictions and Increased Surveillance	106
Restrictions on Diplomatic and Media Access	108
Intensified Repression of Christians	111
The Trials.....	115
XII. Interpreting the Unrest	120
Acknowledgment of Grievances.....	120
Hearts and Minds.....	122
The June 2001 Party Advisory.....	123

XIII. Refugee Flight to Cambodia	127
The Tripartite Talks	134
Flight to Cambodia: Arrest, Mistreatment and Forced Return	138
XIV. Tightening Controls	144
The Christmas Crackdown	145
The One-Year Anniversary.....	147
XV. CASE STUDY: The Church Burning and Killing by Security Forces in Plei Lao.....	150
The Church at Plei Lao	151
The Prayer Meetings.....	152
The Shooting.....	152
The Church Burning	154
The Arrests	155
The Aftermath.....	157
The Government's Response	160
XVI. CASE STUDY: The Goat's Blood Oath Ceremonies in Ea H'leo.....	163
Crude—and Cruel—Rituals.....	163
Humiliation.....	164
XVII. CASE STUDY: Arrest and Torture of Highlanders Deported from Cambodia.....	166
Buon Ea Sup: Why People Fled	167
Torture and Detention.....	168
Selected Bibliography.....	171
Appendix A: The Land Conflict in D Village:First Complaint, 1995	174
Appendix B: The Land Conflict in D Village: Second Complaint, 2000	176
Appendix C: The Interrogation of a Protestant Church Leader, Dak Lak, July 2001	179
Appendix D: Complaint from Buon Don District Villagers to Bureau of Religious Affairs	182
Appendix E: Employment Discrimination Against Minority Christians	183

Appendix F: Citizen Petition: "A Report on the Cruel Action Against the Tribal People in the Highlands"	185
Appendix G: "Official Pledge" Read During the Goat's Blood Ceremonies .	190
Appendix H: March 26, 2001 Deportations, Document 1	192
Appendix I: March 26, 2001 Deportations, Document 2.....	194