

Contents

PROLOGUE: European Question

Which question?	1
Yalta	5
A unique divide	6
Healing?	11

CHAPTER I: German Answers

The divided centre	14
European peace order	16
Two questions or one?	19
The European interest	25

CHAPTER II: Ostpolitik

Was there one?	28
In a word	34
Causes and sources	42

CHAPTER III: Bonn–Moscow–Berlin

'Our most important task'	48
The road from Berlin	58
Treaty work	67
System and crisis	83
A new book	98

CHAPTER IV: Germany and Germany

Foundations	126
Thoughts, words and deeds	132
For people and the people	136
From Germany to Germany	141
Permanent negotiation	149
The German Mark	152
Recognition	162
Liberalisation through stabilisation?	176
Stabilisation without liberalisation	185
Liberation by destabilisation	197
Success and failure	203

CHAPTER V: Beyond the Oder
History and frontiers	216
Compatriots	231
Carrots and sticks	244
Weaving	258
Stability before liberty	279
Reconciliation	298
CHAPTER VI: A Second Ostpolitik
Social Democrats in the 1980s	312
Shadow policy	319
After the event	330
CHAPTER VII: German Unification
Refolution and revolution	344
Peace, agreement and Realpolitik	347
The last treaty work	354
CHAPTER VIII: Findings
German and European	357
Ostpolitik and the end	362
German model	371
EPILOGUE: European Answers?
Consequences	378
European Germany, German Europe	384
Why Europe? Which Europe?	388
Beyond Ostpolitik	393
Possibilities	408
Abbreviations	411
Unpublished sources	415
Short titles	417
Notes	428
Chronology	612
Maps	642
Tables and Graphs	649
Acknowledgements	662
Index	665