

CONTENTS

Foreword	5
1. Problems of competitiveness.....	7
International Competitiveness and Preparation for Membership in the European Union
András Inotai	9
The competitiveness of the Czech economy
Jiří Chlumský	29
Estonia: Some Aspects of Competitiveness, Structural Changes and Employment
Juhan Sillaste	37
Factors influencing the competitiveness of the manufacturing industry of applicant transition countries prior to their accession to the EU
Jana Sereghyová	45
Promoting Competitive Strength through the Washington Consensus?
Eva Klvačová	65
Trade reorientation, firm performance and restructuring of slovenian manufacturing sector
Jože P. Damijan, Boris Majcen	73
Growth and Structural Change in the Czech Economy with reference to the Services Sector
Alois Holub, Oldřich Mesároš	89
Competitiveness in Central and Eastern Europe
Karel Zeman	103
Competitiveness of Central European Countries on the branch-commodity level
Richard Outrata	135
The Czech Foreign Trade Performance in Relation to European Union-Aspects of the Ability to Exist in the Pressure of the Competitive EU Market
Božena Plchová	151

To support or not to support, that is the question Markéta Šumpíková	159
Measuring the Competitiveness - General Approach Tomáš Rydvan	177
Bulgaria: The Currency Board and the National Competitiveness Gancho Ganchev	183
Problems of Regional Development Policy in Poland in the Context of European Integration Jacek Szlachta	207
2. Social support of the east-enlargement	231
Anti-Europeanism and Sovereignty Debates in the Enlargement Countries Pál Tamás	233
Dynamics of Social Support for Integration in Polish Society Jarosław Górniak	250
Social Support for the east-enlargement of the EU in Estonia Aksel Kirch	260
Slovenia and the European Union: Attitudes and Perceptions Samo Uhan, Frane Adam, Mitja Hafner-Fink	266
3. Public administration	294
The Quality of Government and Poland's Integration with Europe Jerzy Hausner, Stanisław Mazur	296
Estonian problems of adoption of EU legislation Marika Kirch	318
The special challenges facing governance in the candidate countries Imre Forgács	326
Contacts	334