

Contents

Foreword	ix
Time chart	x
Maps: Italy 1919-15	xiv
The Italian Empire in 1940	xv
1 Introduction	1
2 The setting: liberal Italy, 1861-1915	3
Politics and society in liberal Italy	3
Italy and the wider world, 1861-96	5
The challenge of democracy	6
Critics of liberalism	9
3 The seedbed of fascism	11
Italy at war	11
The post-war crisis	14
The making of a fascist	16
4 The conquest of power, 1919-25	19
Urban fascism and agrarian fascism, 1919-21	19
The March on Rome	21
The road to dictatorship, 1922-5	23
5 Mussolini's dictatorship	26
Duce, party and state	26
The theory and reality of the Corporate State	29

6	Italy under fascism	33
	Fascist economic policies and their impact	33
	The totalitarian dream	37
7	Diplomacy and imperialism, 1922–36	40
	Fascism and foreign affairs	40
	Mussolini's diplomacy, 1922–32	42
	Ethiopia	44
8	The decline and fall of fascism, 1936–45	47
	The Duce at war, 1936–43	47
	The overthrow of Mussolini	49
	The Italian Social Republic
	and the final collapse of fascism	51
9	Interpreting Italian fascism	54
	Fascism as a symptom of moral decay	54
	Fascism as a product of 'mass society'	55
	Fascism as the agent of capitalism	56
	Fascism as a variety of 'totalitarianism'	57
	Fascism as an agent of 'modernization'	58
	Fascism as the revolution of a rising
	middle class	59
	Conclusion	59
	Suggested reading	62