

CONTENTS.

Chapter I: The awakening of the vocation.

1. The Feeling for form and the imitative disposition.
2. Memory.
3. Imagination.
4. The Complementary talents of Actors.
5. Creative will.
6. Social Environment.
7. Heredity.

Chapter II: The two Spheres of Reality: The Scenic and Every-day life.

8. The Reality and the Feeling for reality.
9. The aesthetic "Illusion" and the Imaginary Feelings of an actor.
10. Shtchepkin's "Discovery".
11. The combination of contrary properties in represented character.
12. Tragedians and comedians.
13. The Blending of the two spheres of reality.
14. The Feelings of an actor (Persönliche Gefühle) and the Feelings of the represented character (Gegenständliche Gefühle) in the consciousness of a spectator.
15. Lyricism of an actor.
16. "Practical Jokes" among actors.
17. Artistic experiments on the stage.
18. Preparation for a performance.

Chapter III: Creative memory and creative imagination.

19. The study of a role.
20. The creative memory.
21. The creative Imagination of an actor. (Perspicacitas).
22. The work of the creative Imagination of an actor during the study of a part.
23. The creative Imagination of an actor in various dramatic forms.

Chapter IV: The creative intuition of an actor.

24. The creative Intuition of an actor.
25. Penetration into a role as a whole, through intonation.
26. Penetration into the soul of a part through outward appearance, mimicry and gestures.
27. Penetration into the part from the Interior.