

Contents

V. THE RECONSTRUCTION YEARS

180. Struggles of the Southern Negro, 1865	533
181. The Northern Negro, 1865	547
182. The Rulers' Force and Violence, 1866	551
183. The First Year of Radical Reconstruction in the South, 1867	559
184. Undermining Reconstruction: 1) Uncle Tomism, 1868-1872	565
185. Undermining Reconstruction: 2) Legal Tactics, 1868	568
186. Undermining Reconstruction: 3) Violence and Fraud, 1871-1876
A. Individual Testimony	572
187. Undermining Reconstruction: 3) Violence and Fraud, 1871-1876
B. Group Testimony	593
188. The Negro in Congress during Reconstruction, 1871-1876	606
189. The Negro in the North and West during Reconstruction, 1866-1874	614
190. The Negro on the National Scene during Reconstruction, 1868-1880	626

VI. EARLY POST-RECONSTRUCTION ERA

191. The Post-Reconstruction Generation, 1870-1890	645
i. Proposals and Programs	646
ii. Negro Organizational Activity	678
iii. Exodus	713
iv. Negro Participation in General Mass Organizations	727
v. More Bourbon Violence	736
vi. Miscellaneous Matters	743

VII. THE APPEARANCE OF IMPERIALISM

192. American Imperialism Appears, 1890-1900	750
i. What is to be Done?	751
ii. Negro Organizations—Views and Proposals	765
iii. Negroes Struggle against Disabilities	778
iv. Lynching	792
v. Populism and Strikes	804
vi. The Negro and the two Major Parties	817
vii. The Spanish-American War and the Philippine Islands	821

VIII. THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

193.	The Developing Negro Liberation Movement, 1901-1910	827
	i. The Negro's Life	828
	ii. The Negro Press	848
	iii. The Negro and Politics	851
	iv. Miscellaneous Matters	861
	v. Booker T. Washington: Pro and Con	876
	vi. Negro Organizational Activity	887
	A. Continuing Efforts	887
	B. The Niagara Movement	897
	c. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People	915
INDEX		929

Index covers Volume I (FROM COLONIAL TIMES THROUGH THE CIVIL WAR) and Volume II.