

Contents

Preface vii

Part One

The Peopling of America: Founding the Colonies

1 The European Invasion 2

Europe Looks Outward 4

 Contraction 4

 Technological Foundations of European Supremacy 6

 Columbus 7

The Native Peoples 8

 The Pattern of Conquest 11

 The Aztec and Inca Empires 12

 The Imperial System 12

 The Fruits of Conquest 14

2 Tobacco and Servants:

The Founding of Virginia* 16

Sources of the English Colonization Drive 16

The Jamestown Fiasco 20

	Hard Times	20
	Dale's Police State	23
	White Over Red	23
	New Inducements	25
	The Tobacco Boom	27
	The Evolution of Chesapeake Society	28
	Population Growth and Family Patterns	28
	Settlement Patterns and Social Structure	30
3	The Puritans of New England	36
	The Rise of English Puritanism	38
	Calvinism	38
	The English Puritans	39
	Repression	40
	The Pilgrim Exodus	42
	Surviving in the Wilderness	44
	The Great Migration to Massachusetts	45
	The Rule of the Saints	47
	Structure of the Puritan Community	50
	Economic Development	51
	Population and Family Patterns	53
	Religious Dissent and Social Change	54
	Individualism Unleashed	57
4	Slavery and the Colonial Economy	60
	The Beginnings of Slavery in the Western Hemisphere	60
	Evolution of the Slave Trade	62
	New Spain and Brazil	64
	The Evolution of the Plantation Economy in the Southern Colonies	66
	Causes of the Changeover	66
	Colonization of the Lower South	69
	Wealth and Its Distribution	71
	Slavery in the North	73
	The Experience of Bondage	74
	Acculturation, Work, and Resistance	76

5	"A Very Mixed Company": The Peopling of Colonial America	80
	The Middle Colonies and the New Immigration	80
	The New Non-English Immigrants	84
	The Population Explosion in British North America	87
	The Low Death Rate	89
	The Best Poor Man's Country	91
	A Trend Toward "Europeanization"?	93
	From State Church to Religious Pluralism	98
	The Great Awakening	101
6	Governing the Empire	106
	The Mercantilist System	108
	Costs and Benefits	110
	Governors and Assemblies	112
	Andros and the Dominion of New England	115
	The Power of Royal Governors in Theory and Practice	116
	The Zenger Case	118
	Leaders and Followers	120
	American and British Politics Contrasted	122
	Conflicting Conceptions of Empire	124
7	Resistance and Rebellion	126
	The Drive for Imperial Reorganization, 1763-66	126
	Tightening the Mercantilist Framework	130
	The Stamp Act Crisis	131
	British Authority Disintegrates, 1766-76	135
	The Townshend Acts	136
	The Tea and Quebec Acts	138
	The Crisis of Legitimacy	139
	Toward Independence	142
	Underlying Causes of the Revolution	143
	British Inflexibility and Insensitivity	144
	American National Pride	145
	The Revolutionary Ideology	146

Part Two

From Many Peoples One: A New Republic

8 Birth of a Nation 150

The War for Independence 150

Rebels and Loyalists 154

Consequences of the Revolution 157

Framing Republican State Governments 159

Religious Liberty 160

The Denationalization of Slavery 161

The Position of Women 163

The American Confederation 163

The Articles of Confederation 166

Westward Expansion and International Rivalries 168

Economic Problems 169

Class Tensions and Popular Disorder 170

Forming a More Perfect Union 171

The Convention at Annapolis 171

The Convention at Philadelphia 172

The Federal Constitution 172

Compromises at Philadelphia 174

The Struggle over Ratification 175

9 The Republic in Peril 180

The Washington Administration 182

Hamilton's Programs 182

An Emerging Republican Opposition 185

"Anglomen" vs. "Gallomen" 186

From Adams to Jefferson 188

The Alien and Sedition Acts 190

The Election of 1800 192

The Crisis of Succession 192

Republicans in Power 194

The Louisiana Purchase 195

The Failure of "Peaceable Coercion" 197

A Republican War 198

Tecumseh and the Pan-Indian Movement 200

10 Industrial and Urban Development in the Northeast 204

The Industrial Revolution in America 207

Technological Innovation 208

Sources of Industrial Capital 209

The Transportation Revolution and the National Market 211

The Labor Supply 215

The Role of Government 217

Living Standards, Stratification, and Mobility 218

Growing Economic Inequality 219

Lost Independence 220

The Gospel of Mobility 221

How Much Mobility in Reality? 221

Cities and Immigrants 222

Urban Disorder 223

The Irish 224

Men, Women, and Children 227

Controlling Impulsive Behavior 228

11 The Cotton Kingdom 232

Slaves, Profits, and Economic Growth 234

Settlement of the Lower South 235

Was Slavery Profitable? 236

Economic Growth 238

Life in the Slave Quarters 240

Subordinate Legal Status 240

Longevity and Diet 240

Punishments and Incentives 241

Education 243

Family Life 243

Rebellion and Flight 245

The Slave Community and Culture 246

The White Social Order 246

The Economic Basis of Planter Domination 247

The Political Dominance of the Planters 249

Ethnic and Religious Homogeneity 250

The Violent South 251

12 The New West 256
 Dispossessing the Indians 256
 Expulsion 258
The Economic Development of the Northwest 261
 Acquiring Title to a Farm 261
 The Agricultural Ladder 264
 The Spread of Market Production 265
 Beginnings of Urbanization and Industrialization 267
Social Structure 269
 Woman's Lot 271
 The Daniel Boone Syndrome 272
 Entrepreneurial Politics 274
 Cultural and Political Conflict 275

13 Politics and Reform, 1815-45 278
Politics Without Parties 278
 John Marshall and the Supreme Court 281
 Storm Over Missouri 282
Jacksonian Democracy and the Emergence of the Second Party System 285
 The Growth of Mass Politics 287
 Indians, Internal Improvements, and the Bank War 288
 The Nullification Crisis 290
The Age of Uplift 292
 The Women's Movement 295
 The Unpopular Cause of Abolitionism 295

14 The Road to Disunion 302
The Fruits of Manifest Destiny 302
 The Mexican War 304
 The Wilmot Proviso 307
 The Compromise—or Armistice—of 1850 308
Party Disintegration and Realignment, 1850-56 310
 Decline of the Whigs 312
 Nativism and the "Know Nothings" 313
 The Kansas-Nebraska Act 313
 Polarization Continues 315

From Dred Scott to John Brown, 1857-59 317
 The Lecompton Constitution 318
 Lincoln Challenges Douglas 319
 John Brown's Raid 321
The Final Crisis, 1860-61 323
 Lincoln's Election 323
 Secession 324
 Coming of the War 327

15 The Union Shattered 330
The Balance of Forces 330
 The Death Toll 334
The War for the Union, 1861-62 335
 Keeping the Border States in the Union 336
 Men and Supplies: The North 337
 Men and Supplies: The South 338
 Military Stalemate 340
The War for Freedom 343
 Pressures for Emancipation 344
 Blacks in Blue 344
 Total War 346
 The Military Balance Shifts 347
 Political Choices 351
Triumph for the Union 352
 The Confederacy Collapses 353

16 Reunion and Reconstruction 358
President Johnson's Reconstruction Program 360
 The Freedman's Bureau 361
 Johnson Takes Command 362
 Congressional Reactions 364
 The Failure of Compromise 366
Congressional Reconstruction 367
 Impeachment 369
 The Fifteenth Amendment 370

Struggle in the South 370

Scalawags 372

Accomplishments of Reconstruction Governments 373

Collapse 374

The Rise of Sharecropping 375

The Effects of Reconstruction 377

Index I-1