

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Part One
NEW HORIZONS IN QUEER SEXUAL ETHICS	1
1. Presuppositions	3
On Not Defending Same-Sex Practices / 4
Beyond Assimilation by Amputation / 6
Queering Sexual Ethics / 8
2. Fundamentals of an Ethic of Sex	15
Sexual Variation / 15
Virtue and Character / 18
Eroticism and Sexual Practice / 19
Men Who Have Sex With Men / 21
What about Heterosexuals? / 22
3. Theological Issues	25
The Regulation of Sexuality in Early Christianity / 25
Sex and Sin / 27
The Body / 29
The Question of Pleasure / 31
The Question of Relationality / 33
On Improvisation / 35
Justice and Mercy / 36
Vocation / 37

Part Two
MARRIAGE AND BEYOND	39
4. Why Christian Marriage Needs Same-Sex Unions	41
Jesus and the Man He Loved / 44
A Medieval Reader: Aelred of Rievaulx / 47
Questions and Implications / 50
5. The Trouble with Marriage	59
A Queer Critique of Marriage Rights / 59
Domestic Partnerships / 62
Trouble for Heterosexuals, Too / 66
6. Beyond Marriage	69
Open Relationships / 69
Polyamory / 75
Part Three
SEX WORK	83
7. From Prostitution to Sex Work	85
The Priority of Prostitution / 85
Perspectives / 88
Policy / 91
A Question of Ethics / 92
8. Biblical Perspectives on Prostitution	95
Matthew (Jesus) / 95
Rahab / 98
Other Hebrew Bible Texts / 100
Luke (Jesus again) / 103
Paul / 104
Reflections / 107

9. Sex Work: Contemporary Questions	109
Objections and Responses / 112
Communion / 119
10. Hustlers	121
Male Sex Workers in the Developed World / 123
Male Sex Workers in the Developing World / 128
Reflections / 130
11. Trafficking and Tourism	135
Sex Trafficking / 135
Sex Tourism / 140
Part Four
ALTERNATIVE SEXUAL STYLES	143
12. Promiscuity	145
Encounters Without Commitment / 147
Promiscuity and Democracy / 148
Promiscuity and Vulnerability / 152
Ethical Promiscuity / 156
Reflections / 157
13. Public Sex	159
Public Sex and Gay Male Culture / 160
Public and Private / 161
Venues for Public Sex / 162
The Ethics of Public Sex / 166	