

Contents

Foreword	7
Primary Sources, Data, Research	11
Social Science Approaches to Immigrant Festivities	16
Festivities of Immigrants to the Czech Republic	23
I. Festivities in the Context of Life in a Diaspora	26
Holidays – An Instrument of Immigrant Self-Identification	26
Reproduction of Default Relationships and Values	29
Celebrations of Changes in Social Status	32
New Festivities of Immigrants	35
Festive Traditions and Their Permeation of Society	58
Receiving Symbolic Festivities from the International Space	59
Acceptance of Czech Festivities	60
Permeation of Immigrant Festivities into Czech Festivities	62
Combining Festivities among Immigrant Groups	66
Public Presentation of Holiday Traditions of Immigrants	67
Religion – Agent of Either Acceptance or Rejection of Celebrations of the ‘Others’	69
Festivities – Symbol of the Unity of Compatriots, a Given and a Commitment to Interconnection in the Transnational Space	81
II. Festivities as Communication Spaces	83
III. Festivities as Staged Theatrics: Actors, Scripts, Scenery, Costumes and Props	88

Directing and Staging Festivities – The Symbolism of Communication	91
Staging Festivities in Modern Czech Society	93
Staging Festivities among Members of Ethnic Diasporas in the Czech Republic	95
Environments of Family and Friendship Groups	96
Social Events Held by Institutions, Associations and Social Groups: Public Space	111
Conclusion	134
Bibliography	139
List of Plates	150