

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD BY PROFESSOR J. D. B. MITCHELL	XIII
PREFACE TO THE ENGLISH EDITION	XV
RECENT GENERAL COMMENTARIES, COLLECTIONS OF SOURCES OF LAW, AND ABBREVIATIONS USED	XIX
 Chapter I
THE GENESIS OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES AND THE ACCES- SION OF OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES	I
§ 1. The Schuman Plan, its backgrounds	I
1.1. The power vacuum in Europe and the tendency towards European integration	2
1.2. The problem of the Franco-German relations and the commitment of the German Federal Republic to Western Europe	4
1.3. Economic considerations	5
§ 2. The ECSC Treaty of 18 April 1951	6
§ 3. The failure of the plans for a European Defence Community (EDC) and for a European Political Community (EPC)	8
3.1. Background and content of these plans	8
3.2. Failure of these plans and 'relance européenne'	10
§ 4. The Spaak Report and the conclusion of the Treaties establishing the European Economic Community (EEC) and the European Atomic Energy Community (EAEC, Euratom)	12
4.1. The content of the Spaak Report	12
4.2. The conclusion of the EEC and Euratom Treaties	14
§ 5. The Communities, the United Kingdom and the other OEEC countries	15
Selected Bibliography on Chapter I	18
 Chapter II
GENERAL ASPECTS OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES	20
§ 1. Diversity and unity of the Communities and Community law	20
1.1. Differences in structure between the three Treaties	20
1.2. Common features	22
§ 2. Character and effect of Community law	25
2.1. Character of Community law; the legal order of the Community	25

2.2.	Effect of Community law in the internal legal sphere	27
§ 3.	The Treaties, their scope of application and revision	31
3.1.	Scope of application ratione materiae	31
3.2.	Territorial scope of application; the association of Part IV of the EEC Treaty; accession	32
3.3.	Scope of application ratione temporis ; revision.	36
§ 4.	The Communities, their legal personality, privileges and immunities, seat, and language regime	38
4.1.	Legal personality	38
4.2.	Privileges and immunities	42
4.3.	Seat	43
4.4.	Language regime	44
	Selected Bibliography on Chapter II	45

Chapter III

	THE SOCIO-ECONOMIC PRINCIPLES OF THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY	46
§ 1.	The structure of socio-economic law	46
1.1.	Content and structure of European socio-economic law	46
1.2.	Method of treatment	46
1.3.	Distribution of the subject-matter over the different chapters	47
§ 2.	The objectives of the Community	49
2.1.	The basic Article 2	49
2.2.	The separate objectives.	50
§ 3.	The means for the achievement of the objectives	51
3.1.	The two means	51
3.2.	Distinction between the two means	52
3.3.	Nevertheless the two means form an indissoluble unity	52
3.4.	The Common Market concept	53
§ 4.	The relative weight of the two means and the timing of their application	55
4.1.	The economic system of the Treaty	55
4.2.	What items does the 'establishment of a common market' involve?	56
4.3.	The timing of the establishment of the common market	57
4.4.	The content of the second means of Article 2	57
§ 5.	The basic principles of Articles 5, 6, and 7	58
5.1.	Summary	58
5.2.	The principle of Community loyalty	58
5.3.	Coordination of economic policies	60
5.4.	The general non-discrimination provision	60
§ 6.	The rights and obligations applying after the end of the transitional period	62
6.1.	Types of legal consequences	62
6.2.	Principal directly applicable provisions	63
6.3.	Rights of the Member States and the institutions of the Communities	64
	Selected Bibliography on Chapter III	65

Chapter IV

INSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURE	66
§ 1. The Council and the Commission	66
1.1. The Council, its composition and character	66
1.2. The Commission, its composition and character	69
1.3. The Council and the Commission, their powers	71
1.4. The Council and the Commission, functions and division of functions	76
1.5. The Council and the Commission: their collaboration	81
§ 2. The European Parliament	82
2.1. Its composition and character	82
2.2. Powers and duties	84
§ 3. The Court of Justice	88
3.1. Its composition, structure, and procedure	88
3.2. Duties and powers	90
3.3. Application of the law	93
§ 4. Subsidiary bodies	98
4.1. The Consultative Committee of the ECSC; the Economic and Social Committee of the EEC and Euratom	98
4.2. Other Committees	100
4.3. Official Services	100
Selected Bibliography on Chapter IV	104

Chapter V

POLICY-MAKING AND ADMINISTRATION	106
§ 1. Legal instruments	106
1.1. Acts of the institutions, general	107
1.2. Regulations	109
1.3. Directives	110
1.4. Decisions	115
1.5. Statement of reasons, publication, entry into force, and enforcement	117
1.6. Acts of the Representatives of the Governments of the Member States within the Council of Ministers	119
§ 2. Finances	123
2.1. The budget of the European Communities	123
2.2. Expenditure and revenue	124
2.3. Decisions on expenditure and revenue: the budgetary procedure in the interim period	129
§ 3. Decision-making procedure	140
3.1. The decisions of the Commission	140
3.2. The decisions of the Council; voting requirements	143
3.3. Decisions of the Council: the function of the Commission; the Committee of Permanent Representatives	146
3.4. Decisions of the Council; the influence of the European Parliament	151
Selected Bibliography on Chapter V	156

Chapter VI

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE	157
§ 1. The Court of Justice	157
1.1. Supervision over the acts of Member States: actions for infringement of the Treaty	157
1.2. Supervision over the acts of the institutions: appeal for annulment; appeal against inaction.	160
1.3. Supervision over the acts of the institutions: the limitation of the right of appeal of private parties; 'the exception of illegality'	166
§ 2. The Court of Justice and national courts	173
2.1. Cooperation of the European Court of Justice and the national courts: preliminary rulings	174
2.2. National courts and Community law	182
§ 3. The legal protection of private parties in the EEC.	188
Selected Bibliography on Chapter VI	191

Chapter VII

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COMMON MARKET: THE FOUR FREEDOMS	193
§ 1. The four freedoms	193
§ 2. Free movement of goods: customs union and fiscal barriers	194
2.1. The customs union as foundation	194
2.2. The abolition of other charges on inter-state trade	195
2.3. Fiscal barriers	196
2.4. The common outer tariff	200
2.5. Common and harmonized customs legislation	201
§ 3. The free movement of goods: the quantitative restrictions	202
3.1. Quantitative restrictions on importation and exportation	202
3.2. Measures having equivalent effect	203
3.3. State trading monopolies	204
§ 4. The free movement of workers	206
4.1. The importance of the free movement of workers	206
4.2. The scope of the free movement of workers	207
4.3. The scheme of social security	209
§ 5. Freedom to exercise a trade or a profession	212
5.1. Objective and primary scope	212
5.2. Implementation of Articles 53 and 59 and self-executing character	214
5.3. Secondary scope of the right of establishment	216
5.4. The activities and persons favoured by the right to exercise a trade or profession	218
§ 6. The free movement of payments and capital	220
6.1. Objective of a free movement of payments and capital	220
6.2. Scope of the free movement of payments	222
6.3. Scope of the free movement of capital	222

6.4.	Further definition of the scope of the free movement of capital	224
6.5.	Movement of capital and payments between Member States and third countries	226
§ 7.	Exceptions to the four freedoms	227
7.1.	Categories of safeguard clauses	227
7.2.	Safeguard clauses during the transitional period	227
7.3.	The permanent safeguard clauses in cases of disturbance of the balance of payments	229
7.4.	Safeguard clauses of public policy	232
	Selected Bibliography on Chapter VII	236

Chapter VIII

	ESTABLISHMENT AND FUNCTIONING OF THE COMMON MARKET: COMPETITION POLICY	238
§ 1.	Harmonization of laws	238
1.1.	Harmonization, necessary for the establishment of a common market	238
1.2.	Harmonization in the interest of the proper functioning of the common market	239
1.3.	Character and procedure of the harmonization under Article 100.	240
1.4.	General problems of harmonization	241
1.5.	The territoriality principle and Articles 220 and 235.	242
§ 2.	Distortion of the conditions of competition	244
2.1.	Articles 101 and 102	244
2.2.	Articles 92-94	246
§ 3.	Rules of competition for undertakings	249
3.1.	General remarks	249
3.2.	Article 85 (1) and (2)	253
3.3.	Article 85 (3)	257
3.4.	The general mechanism of the application of Article 85	259
3.5.	Legal practice with regard to particular types of restriction of competition	264
3.6.	Divergent rules for agriculture and transport	267
3.7.	Article 86	268
3.8.	State undertakings (Article 90)	271
	Selected Bibliography on Chapter VIII	274

Chapter IX

	ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL POLICIES	275
§ 1.	Introduction	275
1.1.	Relation between economic and social policies	275
1.2.	The coordination concept	275
1.3.	Coordination systems	276
1.4.	The coordination procedures of the Treaty	278
1.5.	The coordination instruments proper of the Treaty	279

1.6. Monetary policy	281
§ 2. Economic policy	283
2.1. The subjects of coordination	283
2.2. The conjunctural policy	283
2.3. Monetary and financial policies	285
2.4. The balance-of-payments policy	289
2.5. Medium-term economic policy	289
2.6. The European Investment Bank	292
§ 3. Social policy	293
3.1. General remarks	293
3.2. Special provisions	296
3.3. The European Social Fund	297
Selected Bibliography on Chapter IX	299

Chapter X

SECTORIAL POLICY	300
§ 1. General remarks	300
§ 2. Agriculture	302
2.1. The nature of the agricultural problems	302
2.2. Objectives of the common agricultural policy	304
2.3. Means of the common agricultural policy	304
2.4. The European market organizations	307
2.5. The structural policy in agriculture	312
2.6. General significance of the agricultural policy for integration	315
§ 3. Transport policy	316
3.1. Aspects of transport	316
3.2. Treaties and transport policy	321
§ 4. The European Coal and Steel Community	328
4.1. Objective and system of coordination	328
4.2. The principles of market economy	329
4.3. The powers of intervention	332
§ 5. The European Atomic Energy Community	333
5.1. Aims and means	333
5.2. Research	334
5.3. Dissemination of knowledge	335
5.4. Health protection	336
5.5. Safety control	336
5.6. Investments	336
5.7. Joint enterprises	337
5.8. Supply of ores, source materials, and special fissionable materials	337
5.9. The regulation of the right of property of special fissionable materials	338
5.10. The common market in the field of nuclear energy	339
5.11. External relations	340
§ 6. The energy policy	341

§ 7. Other sectors 344
 Selected Bibliography on Chapter X 346

Chapter XI

EXTERNAL RELATIONS 348

§ 1. The problem of external relations 348
 1.1. Relations of commercial policy 348
 1.2. Association and other special trade arrangements 351
 § 2. The common commercial policy 359
 2.1. General 359
 2.2. Autonomous measures of commercial policy 362
 2.3. Trade agreements 366
 Selected Bibliography on Chapter XI 369

Chapter XII

BEYOND THE COMMUNITIES OF THE SIX 371

§ 1. The principal defects in the Communities on 1 January 1970 371
 1.1. Three defects and the Hague summit conference of December 1969 371
 1.2. Enlargement 371
 1.3. Completion and deepening 372
 1.4. Strengthening of the institutions 373
 § 2. The enlargement of the Communities 375
 2.1. Introduction and general principles relating to the accession of the new Member States 375
 2.2. Adjustment of the original Treaties; financial provisions 383
 2.3. Transitional provisions and adjustments to secondary Community law 389
 2.4. External relations 402
 § 3. The merger of the Communities 406
 3.1. Maximalistic, minimalistic, and realistic solutions 406
 3.2. The specific problems 408
 3.3. Points of departure for a realistic solution 409
 § 4. United States of Europe? 410
 4.1. Three essential issues for the future 410
 4.2. The relations with the outside world 411
 4.3. The internal political structure of the Community 412
 4.4. The social system 413
 4.5. Conclusion 413
 Selected Bibliography on Chapter XII 414

INDEX 415

TABLE OF ARTICLES 422

TABLE OF CASES 429