

Contents

Table of statutes	xx
Table of cases	xxix
Glossary of common terms	lxv

Part I The Importance of Equity

1 What is equity?	3
1 Introduction	3
2 The concept of equity	3
3 The origins of equity	4
4 Trusts and powers	10
5 Equity and property	15
6 Equitable remedies	22
7 The creativity of equity	22
8 The maxims of equity	22
2 Equitable obligations	26
1 Introduction	26
2 Trust funds	26
3 Trustees are subject to obligations	28
4 The rights of beneficiaries	32
5 Classification of equitable obligations	34
6 A practical guide to interpretation	42
3 Equity and the management of property	44
1 Introduction	44
2 Hiding the identity of the true owner of property	44
3 Transferring the ownership of property	45
4 Sharing ownership of property	45
5 Protecting equitable interests in property	47
6 Delegating management or allocation functions	48
7 Gifts to be applied for purposes	51
8 Gifts for charitable purposes	51

9	Collective investment	51
10	Property holding by clubs and societies	55
11	Trusts arising to protect legitimate expectations	55
12	Trusts that are remedial in effect	56
13	Trusts and tax planning	57
14	Arrangements without trusts	59

Part II Creating the Relationship

4	Certainty	69
1	Introduction	69
2	The three certainties	69
3	Certainty of intention	70
4	Certainty of subject matter	74
5	Certainty of objects	78
6	Contagious uncertainty	90
5	Constitution of trusts	92
1	Introduction	92
2	Two ways of creating a valid trust	92
3	Requirements of an express trust	94
4	Constitution of trusts	95
5	Constituting the trust by transfer	99
6	Ineffective transfers and declaration	107
7	Enforcing a trust	107
8	Exceptions to the rule that 'equity will not assist a volunteer'	110
9	Common law remedies for incompletely constituted trusts	117
6	Formalities	122
1	Introduction	122
2	Inter vivos declarations of trust	122
3	Declarations of trusts by will	125
4	Dispositions of subsisting equitable interests	126
5	Resulting and constructive trusts	135
7	Policy limits	136
1	Introduction	136
2	The rule against perpetuities	136
3	Conditional and determinable interests	139

Part III Resulting and Constructive Trusts

8	Resulting trusts	147
1	Introduction	147
2	What are resulting trusts?	147
3	Distinguishing resulting trusts	148
4	Rationale of resulting trusts	150
5	Presumed resulting trusts	154
8	Resulting trusts operating to reverse unjust enrichment?	173
6	Automatic resulting trusts	176
7	Quistclose trusts	181
8	Charitable trusts	189
9	Exhaustion of a fund	189
9	Constructive trusts	190
1	Introduction	190
2	The role of constructive trusts	192
3	Preventing benefit from crime	194
4	Common intention constructive trusts	200
5	Enforcing bargains	201
6	The 'remedial constructive trust'	206

Part IV Equity in Action

10	Interests in the family home	217
1	Introduction	217
2	The current approach	220
3	Features of the current approach	223
4	Express trusts	224
5	Applying the current approach	227
6	Criticism of the 'common intention' constructive trust	237
11	The evolution of rights in the family home	240
1	Introduction	240
2	The deserted wife's equity	240
3	A proprietary interest in the home	241
4	Resulting trusts	241
5	Common intention constructive trusts	247

12	Proprietary estoppel	259
1	Introduction	259
2	The nature of proprietary estoppel	259
3	Establishing the equity	260
4	Satisfying the equity	275
5	Bars to a remedy	286
13	Clubs and societies	287
1	Introduction	287
2	Types of clubs and societies	287
3	The problem of asset holding and management	288
4	Dissolution of clubs and societies	295
5	Surplus funds on dissolution	296
6	Critique	301
14	Wills and inheritance	302
1	Introduction	302
2	Methods of making provision after death	302
3	Probate	306
4	Intestacy	306
5	Wills	308
6	Mutual wills	319
7	Secret trusts	330

Part V Charities

15	The role and status of charities	351
1	Introduction	351
2	Charities in society	351
3	Mechanisms for charitable giving	356
4	The unity of charity	357
5	Regulation and control of charities	357
6	Negative perceptions of charity	358
7	Privileges enjoyed by charitable trusts	358
16	Charitable trusts	362
1	Introduction	362
2	Defining charitable trusts	362
3	Charitable purposes	366
4	Recognizing new charitable purposes	390

5	Charitable purposes overseas	392
6	Trusts with political objects	393
7	The requirement of public benefit	400
8	Interpreting charitable gifts	418
17	Cy-près: redistributing funds and changing purposes	422
1	Introduction	422
2	Circumstances justifying cy-près application	424
3	Subsequent failure of charitable gifts	426
4	Initial failure of charitable gifts	427
5	Cy-près schemes	432
6	Failure of charitable appeals	434
7	Reform of cy-près	435
18	Control and regulation of charitable trusts	437
1	Introduction	437
2	Features of the regulatory system	438
3	The Charity Commission	443

Part VI Allocation of Benefit

19	Choosing who benefits	463
1	Introduction	463
2	Certainty	463
3	Beneficial entitlement and ownership	463
4	Purpose trusts	465
5	Charitable and benevolent giving	473
6	The duty to act even-handedly	473
20	Fixed trusts	478
1	Introduction	478
2	Nature of a fixed trust	478
3	Uses of fixed trusts	479
4	Beneficial entitlement to defined interests	483
5	Certainty of objects	484
6	Execution and performance	484
7	Dealing with the equitable interest	485
21	Powers of appointment	488
1	Introduction	488
2	Nature of powers of appointment	488

3	Rights of the objects of powers	491
4	The validity of powers of appointment	491
5	Exercise of powers of appointment	492
6	Duties of the donee of a mere power of appointment	494
7	Failure to exercise a mere power	497
8	When is a power fiduciary?	500
9	Duties of the donee of fiduciary powers	501
10	Supervision by the court of fiduciary powers	502
11	Effect of failure to exercise a fiduciary power	504
12	Release of powers	504
22	Discretionary trusts	508
1	Introduction	508
2	The nature of discretionary trusts	508
3	The development of the discretionary trust	510
4	Types of discretionary trusts	510
5	Essential validity of discretionary trusts	511
6	Rights of beneficiaries of discretionary trusts	516
7	The duties of trustees of discretionary trusts	517
8	Protectors	519
9	Enforcement by the court	519
23	Powers of maintenance and advancement	521
1	Introduction	521
2	What are powers of maintenance and advancement?	521
3	Changes in the law	521
4	The trustees' power of maintenance	522
5	The trustees' power of advancement	526
24	Variation of beneficial interests	530
1	Introduction	530
2	Consensual variation	531
3	Variation under the inherent jurisdiction of the court	532
4	Miscellaneous statutory powers	535
5	The Variation of Trusts Act 1958	537
Part VII Managing Trusts
25	Management and delegation	551
1	Introduction	551
2	The extent of management powers	552

3	Delegation by trustees	556
4	Delegation at common law	557
5	A statutory right to delegate	559
6	The current statutory framework	560
7	Individual delegation	565
26	Investment	567
1	Introduction	567
2	The purpose of investment	568
3	Powers of disposal	569
4	Authorized investments	571
5	Widening of powers of investment	578
6	Theories of investment	579
7	Duties	582
8	Delegation	590
27	Appointing and changing trustees	592
1	Introduction	592
2	The original trustees	592
3	Retirement of trustees	595
4	Appointing new trustees	596
5	Trustee Act 1925, s 36	598
6	Trustee Act 1925, s 41	604
7	Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996	609
8	Appointment of special trustees	610
9	The court's inherent jurisdiction	612
Part VIII Checks, Controls, and Remedies
28	Control and accountability	617
1	The need for control and accountability	617
2	The means of control	619
3	The duty to exercise discretions properly	623
4	Are trustees required to give reasons for their decisions?	629
5	Information about the trust	631
29	Remedies against the trustee for breach of trust	637
1	Introduction	637
2	Meaning of breach of trust	637
3	Compensation for breach of trust	647

4	Defences to liability for breach of trust	656
5	Contribution and indemnity where a trustee is liable	668
30	Fiduciary duties	672
1	Introduction	672
2	Fiduciary relationships	672
3	Fiduciary duties	680
4	Abuse of position	681
5	Unauthorized remuneration	683
6	Purchase of trust property by trustees	685
7	Bribes and secret commissions	688
8	Incidental profits	689
9	Opportunities	692
10	Use of confidential information	695
11	Liability for breach of fiduciary duty	697
12	Remedies for breach	702
13	Defences to an action for breach of fiduciary duty	709
31	Remedies against strangers to the trust	713
1	Introduction	713
2	When can strangers be liable?	713
3	Trustees de son tort	717
4	Dishonest assistance in breach of trust	719
5	Proprietary remedies for receipt in breach of trust	731
6	Liability for unconscionable receipt	731
7	Mapping a way through personal stranger claims	746
32	Tracing	748
1	Introduction	748
2	What is tracing?	748
3	Tracing and claiming at common law	758
4	Tracing and claiming in equity	768
Part IX Equity's Contribution to Remedies
33	Rescission, rectification, and account	799
1	Introduction to equitable remedies	799
2	Where equity intervenes	799
3	Rescission	800
4	Rectification	810
5	Account	813

34	Specific performance	817
1	Introduction	817
2	Specific performance	817
3	When is specific performance available?	818
4	Contracts where specific performance is not available	821
5	Mutuality	827
6	Defences to specific performance	828
7	Damages in lieu of specific performance	830
8	Effect of order of specific performance	830
35	Injunctions	831
1	Introduction	831
2	Types of injunction	832
3	General principles governing perpetual injunctions	834
4	General principles governing interlocutory injunctions	841
5	General principles governing quia timet injunctions	847
6	Rights which will be protected by injunction	848
7	Injunctions to protect privacy, and reputation	853
8	Freezing injunctions	859
9	Search orders	864
	Index	867