

Contents

Dignity/Autonomy of the Law/Human Rights/Comparable Personal Autonomies: Introducing an Indispensable Generating Series (and Its Productive “Phantoms”)	1
José Manuel Aroso Linhares ✓
Part I Exploring the “Conceptual Bonds” Between Human Rights and Human Dignity
From Human Rights to Human Dignity and Vice Versa	13
José de Sousa e Brito
Models of Consensus and Compromise on Human Rights and Dignity	19
João Cardoso Rosas
The Foundations of Human Rights, Dignity or Autonomy?	31
Manuel Atienza ✓
Part II Exploring the Problem of the Autonomy of Law in the Trends of Contemporary Legal Discourse(s)
Hart, Raz and Kelsen on the Puzzle of Law’s Autonomy	55
Eduardo A. Chia
Constructivist Metaphors and Law’s Autonomy in Legal Post-Positivism	89
Jesús Vega
Part III Intertwining the Claim to Autonomy and the Concept of Human Dignity
Merit, Value and Justification: Human Dignity Vis-à-Vis Legal (Inter)subjectivity—The Autonomy of Subjects Within the Autonomy of Law	115
Ana Margarida Simões Gaudêncio

Between Principles and Rules	133
Silvia Niccolai
The Legal Meaning of Human Dignity: Respect for Autonomy and Concern for Vulnerability	167
António Cortês
 Part IV Dialogues with Emmanuel Levinas
The Double Sense of the Law-Dignity Relationship in Emmanuel Levinas	185
Susan Petrilli
Human Rights, Rights of the Other, and Preventive Peace: A Levinasian Perspective	221
Augusto Ponzio
 Part V Dialogues with Jeremy Waldron
No Argument: Human Dignity and the Making of Legislation	239
Julie Copley
Is Dignity a Non-contingent Autonomously Juridical “Idea”? A Conversation Piece with Jeremy Waldron	259
José Manuel Aroso Linhares
 Part VI Exploring Human Dignity in the Boundaries of Law
Does Dignity Promote Law’s Autonomy or Undermine It? The Israeli Controversy	279
Orit Kamir
Images and Counter-Images of Humanitas: A Jusaesthetic Approach to the Problem of Law’s Normative Validity: Beyond the Blindness-and-Sightedness Polarity	293
Brisa Paim Duarte	