

Contents

Introduction - Concepts of Policy	3
PART I American Foreign Policy
Chapter 1 / The Truman Doctrine in Europe and the World	17
I. Anti-Communism as a National Ideology	19
II. The Khrushchev Interlude	25
III. Relics of the Cold War in Europe	33
Chapter 2 / The Truman Doctrine in Asia	48
I. China in Perdition	49
II. China in Wartime	54
III. Ho's Vietnam	60
Chapter 3 / Vietnam—The Futile Crusade	72
I. The Phantom of Victory	76
II. Vietnam on Its Merits	83
III. The Geopolitics of the War	90
IV. Ending It	102
Chapter 4 / The Middle East—Myths and Realities	107
I. The Myths	109
II. Perspectives	117
III. Toward Peace	141

Chapter 5 / The Rules of the Game	150
I. Our "Vital Interests"	152
II. Returning to First Principles	156
III. After Vietnam	160

PART II The Domestic Consequences

Chapter 6 / Congress and the War	177
I. A Presidential War	181
II. The Inert Congress	192
Chapter 7 / The Decline—and Possible Fall—of Constitutional Democracy in America	204
I. The Jurisprudence of Crisis	205
II. The War Power	209
III. The Treaty Power	217
IV. The Imperial Presidency	227
V. Doing Something About It	235
Chapter 8 / State of the Society	243
I. Money and Priorities	245
II. The Anxious Society	254
Chapter 9 / Conclusion: The Price of Empire	265
I. The Competitive Impulse	268
II. The "Empty System of Power"	275