

Contents

---

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Preface	x
Salil K. Mehra
Acknowledgements	xii
1     The algorithmic collusion debate: a focus on (autonomous) tacit collusion Steven Van Uytsel	1
2     Algorithms and the limits of antitrust Thomas Weck	39
3     Artificially intelligent collusion caught under EU competition law Jan Blockx	48
4     Can the reformed Australian competition law stop algorithmic collusion? Baskaran Balasingham	67
5     Tackling algorithmic collusion: the scope of the Indian Competition Act Nikita Koradia, Kiran Manokaran and Zara Saeed	92
6     Challenges brought by and in response to algorithms: the perspective of China's Anti-Monopoly Law Wei Han, Yajie Gao and Ai Deng	142
7     Algorithmic collusion and the Japanese antimonopoly law Steven Van Uytsel and Yoshiteru Uemura	165
8     Price-monitoring algorithms and resale price maintenance: an analysis of recent cases in Europe Yoshiteru Uemura	189

9	Pricing in online grocery markets: challenges in monitoring competition Cassey Lee and Gloria Lin	203
10	Algorithms unravelled: observations on the audit of Uber and Amazon marketplace algorithms Steven Van Uytsel	237
	Index	260