

Table of Contents

Notes on Contributors	iv
Acknowledgements	vi
1 Weak States, Strong States: A State-in-Society Perspective PETER DAUVERGNE	1
2 Why Do So Many States Stay Intact? JOEL S. MIGDAL	11
3 In Weakness and Strength—State, Societies and Order in Papua New Guinea SINCLAIR DINNEN	38
4 State, Society and Governance: Reflections on a Philippines–Papua New Guinea Comparison RON MAY	60
5 Migdal in Melanesia PETER LARMOUR	77
6 Indonesia's 'Strong' State HAROLD CROUCH	93
7 Confucius in Singapore: Culture, Politics, and the PAP State STEPHANIE LAWSON	114
8 Weak States and the Environment in Indonesia and the Solomon Islands PETER DAUVERGNE	135
9 Land Regimes and State Strengths and Weaknesses in the Philippines and Vietnam BENEDICT J. TRIA KERKVLJET	158
References	175
Index	206