

Contents

|   |                |
|---|----------------|
| Introduction   | page 4  |
| Entry Test   | page 8  |
| Answer Keys and Teaching Notes                           | page 12 |
| Grammar Practice Activities and Communication Activities | page 20 |
| Unit Tests   | page 44 |
| Tests for Two Units                                      | page 56 |
| Term Tests   | page 68 |
| End of Year Test   | page 74 |
| Answer Keys  | page 78 |

Teaching notes for the photocopyable communication activities

These communication activities are designed to help students practice their listening and speaking skills. The activities are arranged in a way that allows students to work in pairs or small groups. The activities are designed to be used as a diagnostic tool to assess students on what they are already able to do, or to determine what they need to learn. The activities are arranged in a way that allows students to work in pairs or small groups. The activities are designed to be used as a diagnostic tool to assess students on what they are already able to do, or to determine what they need to learn.

Grammar practice activities and communication activities

The grammar practice activities are designed to help students practice their grammar skills. The activities are arranged in a way that allows students to work in pairs or small groups. The activities are designed to be used as a diagnostic tool to assess students on what they are already able to do, or to determine what they need to learn. The activities are arranged in a way that allows students to work in pairs or small groups. The activities are designed to be used as a diagnostic tool to assess students on what they are already able to do, or to determine what they need to learn.