Content

7	Isolated island of freedom	46	A world of two superpowers
8	Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk – philosopher	47	Normalisation
	president	49	Audience
8	A small historic moment	50	Charter 77
9	Multi-ethnic Czechoslovakia	51	The true face of the Husák
10	An advanced country		regime
11	Václav Havel was lucky in his birth	55	Under state surveillance
12	A first-rate pleasure palace	55	The power of the powerless
12	Munich: the betrayal of 1938	58	Prisoner of conscience
15	Tasteful luxury at the Havels'	58	Letters and infidelity to Olga
19	The Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia	61	The erosion of the socialist
21	Life on the edge of collaboration		bloc in the 1980s
22	A posh city boy in a village school	63	Civic awakening
22	Post-war Czechoslovakia in Stalin's	64	A breeze of freedom sphere of influence	65	Back in jail
26	The transfer of the Sudeten Germans	66	The fall of the Iron Curtain
26	The Iron Curtain	70	The 17th of November 1989
31	Communist dictatorship and the	71	The birth of Civic Forum shattering of the foundations of society	73	"We are not like them",
32	Hard times		or the Velvet Revolution
33	Bourgeois origin = excluded	73	Havel to the Castle!
	from studies	79	Our country is not flowering
34	The Soviet Union as a superpower	82	Non-political politics
36	The 1950s in Czechoslovakia	82	International stardom
37	His own way	86	The woes of power
38	The first stirrings of the writer	87	The Lucerna
38	The idiotic Czechoslovak army	88	Love
39	Laughter against stupidity	89	Leaving
39	Vocation above circumstances	92	Epilogue
40	Prague Spring without illusions	95	Bibliography
44	From stage hand to famous dramatist		