

Contents

Preface	xi
PART ONE The Sociological Study of Childhood	1
1. Social Theories of Childhood	5
Sociology's Rediscovery of Childhood	5
Traditional Theories: Socialization	7
Children's Understanding of Conservation of Mass	12
Interpretive Reproduction: Children
Collectively Participate in Society	18
Do Chips Have Blood on Them?	20
Summary	27
2. The Structure of Childhood and Children's Interpretive Reproductions	29
Assumptions of the Structural Perspective	29
The New American Grandparent	31
Age and Gender in Hausa Society	33
Childhood, Children's Activities, and Interpretive Reproduction in Peer Culture	40
Preschool Children's Secondary Adjustments to Teacher's Rules	42
Summary	43
3. Studying Children and Childhood	45
Macrolevel Methods	46
Microlevel Methods	49
Nontraditional Methods in Studying Children	55
Ethical Issues in Researching Children's Lives	56
Summary	58

PART TWO	Children, Childhood, and Families in Historical and Cultural Context	59
4.	Historical Views of Childhood and Children	61
	Philippe Ariès's Centuries of Childhood	62
	The Debate Regarding Grand-Stage Theories of the Family and Childhood	65
	The New History of Childhood	67
	The Newsies	78
	Summary	80
5.	Social Change, Families, and Children	83
	Examining Changes in Families
	From the Children's Perspective	83
	Children's Everyday Lives in Families	85
	Amy Sticks Up for Her Mom	88
	The Effects of Recent Socioeconomic Changes on Children and Childhood in Western Societies	95
	The Effects of Recent Socioeconomic Changes on Children and Childhood in Developing Societies	102
	Summary	104
PART THREE	Children's Cultures	107
6.	Children's Peer Cultures and Interpretive Reproduction	109
	Examining Peer Culture from Children's Perspective	109
	Central Importance of Peer Culture in Interpretive Reproduction	110
	Symbolic Aspects of Children's Cultures	115
	Material Aspects of Children's Cultures	125
	Summary	131
7.	Sharing and Control in Initial Peer Cultures	133
	Central Themes in Children's Initial Peer Cultures	134
	Friendship, Sharing, and Social Participation	136
	The Little Chairs Routine	137
	Access Rituals in an American Preschool	141
	Italian Children's Production of the Cantilena in Discussione	146
	Autonomy and Control in Peer Culture	149
	The Walking Bucket	154
	La Strega	156
	Summary	158

8.	Conflict and Differentiation in the Initial Peer Culture	161
	Conflict and Peer Relations	161
	Bad Wolves Do Not Exist	162
	Social Differentiation in Initial Peer Cultures	171
	Summary	188
9.	Preadolescent Peer Cultures	191
	Peer Cultures in Preadolescence	192
	Friendship Processes in Preadolescent Peer Cultures	192
	Autonomy and Identity in Preadolescent Peer Cultures	201
	Cradle of Love	208
	Disputes, Conflict, Friendships, and Gender	211
	Boys and Cooties	217
	Summary	221
PART FOUR Children, Social Problems, and the Future of Childhood		225
10.	Children, Social Problems, and the Family	229
	Changing Family Structures and Children's Lives	229
	Work, Families, and Childhood	230
	Divorce and Its Effects on Children	236
	Child Abuse in the Family	243
	Summary	248
11.	Children, Social Problems, and Society	251
	Poverty and the Quality of Children's Lives	251
	The Abraham Lincoln of Child Workers	258
	Growing Up Fast: The Story of Nicholas	265
	Teen Pregnancy and Nonmarital Births	267
	Violence, Victimization, and the Loss of Childhood	275
	Summary	281
12.	The Future of Childhood	283
	The Major Challenges	286
	Some More Modest Proposals to Enrich Children's Lives	293
	Conclusion	310
	References	311
	Index/Glossary	339
	About the Author	359