

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	xi
Maps 1 Ireland before 1700	xvi
2 Ireland before 1900	xvii
3 Northern Ireland	xviii
 1 Occupation, Assimilation and Resistance, 1170–1533	1
Gaelic Ireland	2
The advent of Christianity	4
Viking incursions	6
The pre-Norman crisis	9
The English invasion	11
The lordship of Ireland	15
The failure of the lordship	21
The shrinking Pale	32
The House of Kildare and the domination of Gearóid Mór	35
The Tudor intervention	37
 2 Early Modern Ireland, 1534–1691	39
The defeat of the Kildares	39
The effect of the Reformation	41
The kingdom of Ireland	43
The continuing Reformation	46
Rebellious Ireland and the Elizabethan conquest	51
The plantations	63
 3 From King William to the Act of Union, 1692–1800	80
The penal laws	81
The eighteenth-century Irish economy	86
The land issue	88
A distant parliament	93
The rise of Grattan	97
Grattan's parliament	100
Revolutionary fervour: the United Irishmen	104

	The 1798 rebellion	110
	Union	114
4	The Nineteenth Century	118
	The growing economic crisis	120
	From rebellion to reform	121
	The Catholic Association and emancipation	125
	Whig reforms	129
	The Repeal Association	131
	The Great Famine	135
	The development of Home Rule politics	147
	The Fenians	149
	Post-Fenian Anglo-Irish politics	153
	The advent of Charles Stewart Parnell	156
	The Land League and the Land War	158
	The Home Rule Bill and the fall of Parnell	162
	Cultural nationalism	165
	Land reform	168
	The mobilisation of unionism	170
5	Founding the States	173
	Nationalism re-emergent	174
	The impact of British politics	177
	The Third Home Rule Bill	178
	Unionist opposition	179
	Political dynamics	182
	Nationalist responses	183
	The First World War	185
	Unionists and the war	186
	Redmondite nationalism and the war	188
	Physical-force nationalism and the 1916 Rising	190
	The Rise of Sinn Féin and the threat of conscription	195
	The War of Independence	199
	The Treaty	202
	The Civil War	204
	From partition to world war	206
	The Second World War	215
6	Post-War Ireland and the Modern Troubles	219
	Feelings of separation	219

The post-war Republic of Ireland	221
Post-war Northern Ireland	227
The troubles	230
Peace process	244
Chronology	252
Glossary	258
Further Reading	263
Index	267