

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|--|------|
| Authors of figures | /8 |
| List of figures | /9 |
| Introduction | /13 |
| Ore mining in the Ore Mountains and the establishment of mining towns | /17 |
| The mining profession and mining law | /33 |
| Medical care, hospitals, and social solidarity | /43 |
| Mining guilds and their representation | /46 |
| Coin minting and medal making | /50 |
| The patron saints and piety of miners | /54 |
| The mining towns after Luther's theses, and confessionalisation in the Ore Mountains | /61 |
| Between the Gothic and the Renaissance: In search of the 'Saxon Renaissance' | /69 |
| The Saxon Renaissance in architecture | /72 |
| The urbanism and architecture of mining towns in the Ore Mountains | /84 |
| Faith and piety in mining towns in the context of religious monuments | /119 |
| Remembering Přísečnice | /168 |
| The mining towns of Slavkov Forest | /174 |
| Review of sources, literature and internet sources | /186 |