Contents

About the Authors ix

Preface: Aims and Organization of this Handbook xix

PART 1 FRAMING THE FIELD OF VISUAL RESEARCH 1

1 An Integrated Conceptual Framework for Visual Social Research 3
Luc Pauwels

2 Looking Two Ways: Mapping the Social Scientific Study of Visual Culture 24
Richard Chalfen

3 Visual Studies and Empirical Social Inquiry 49
Jon Wagner

4 Seeing Things: Visual Research and Material Culture 72
Jon Wagner

PART 2 PRODUCING VISUAL DATA AND INSIGHT 97

5 Anthropological Filmmaking: An Empirical Art 99
David MacDougall

6 Repeat Photography in Landscape Research 114
Mark Klett

7 Rephotography for Documenting Social Change 132
Jon H. Rieger

8 Visual Research Methods in the Design Process 150
Prasad Boradkar

PART 3 PARTICIPATORY AND SUBJECT-CENTERED APPROACHES 169

9 Community-Based Participatory Video and Social Action in Rural South Africa 171
Claudia Mitchell and Naydene de Lange

10 Differentiating Practices of Participatory Visual Media Production 186
Richard Chalfen

11 Some Theoretical and Methodological Views on Photo-Elicitation 201
Francesco Lapenta

12 Children-Produced Drawings: An Interpretive and Analytical Tool for Researchers 214
Tirupalavanam G. Ganesh

13 The Photo Diary as an Autoethnographic Method 241
Elisabeth Chaplin

PART 4 ANALYTICAL FRAMEWORKS AND APPROACHES 263

14 Quantitative Content Analysis of the Visual 265
Annekatrin Bock, Holger Isermann and Thomas Knieper

15 Iconography and Iconology as a Visual Method and Approach 283
Marion G. Müller

16 Visual Semiotics: Key Features and an Application to Picture Ads 298
Winfried Nöth

17 Press Photography and Visual Rhetoric 317
Terence Wright

18 Methodological Approaches to Disclosing Historic Photographs 337
Eric Margolis and Jeremy Rowe

19 Researching Film and History: Sources, Methods, Approaches 359
James Chapman

20 Looking Closely: Toward a Natural History of Human Ingenuity 372
Ray McDermott and Jason Raley

21 Ethnomethodology and the Visual: Practices of Looking, Visualization, and Embodied Action 392
Michael Ball and Gregory Smith

22 Videography: An Interpretative Approach to Video-Recorded Micro-Social Interaction 414
Hubert Knoblauch and René Tuma

PART 5 VISUALIZATION TECHNOLOGIES AND PRACTICES 431

23 Eye Tracking as a Tool for Visual Research 433
Bettina Olk and Arvid Kappas

24 Expanding Cartographic Practices in the Social Sciences 452
Innisfree McKinnon

25 Participatory Geographic Information Systems (PGIS) in Visual Research 474
Daniel Collins

26 Numbers into Pictures: Visualization in Social Analysis 494
John Grady

27 Visual Conceptualization Opportunities with Qualitative Data Analysis Software 530
Raewyn Bassett

PART 6 MOVING BEYOND THE VISUAL 547

28 Multimodality and Multimodal Research 549
Theo van Leeuwen

29 Researching Websites as Social and Cultural Expressions: Methodological Predicaments and a Multimodal Model for Analysis 570
Luc Pauwels

30 How to 'Read' Images with Texts: The Graphic Novel Case 590
Jan Baetens and Steven Surdiacourt

31 A Multisensory Approach to Visual Methods 601
Sarah Pink

PART 7 OPTIONS AND ISSUES FOR USING AND PRESENTING VISUAL RESEARCH 615

32 Interactive Media Representation 617
Roderick Coover

33 Doing and Disseminating Visual Research: Visual Arts-Based Approaches 638
Dónal O'Donoghue

34 Making Arguments with Images: Visual Scholarship and Academic Publishing 651
Darren Newbury

35 Making a 'Case': Applying Visual Sociology to Researching Eminent Domain 665
Brian Gran

36 Visual Research Ethics at the Crossroads 685
Rose Wiles, Andrew Clark and Jon Prosser

37 Legal Issues of Using Images in Research 707
Jeremy Rowe

Index 723

Color versions of the images used in the book are available on a companion website to the book which can be found at: www.sagepub.co.uk/margolis