

Contents

77	Christianity in the Americas	Conversion	181
80	Christianity in Africa	Spatial Effect of Missionary Activity	185
88	Islam	Spatial Effect of Religious Hegemony	188
92	Sufism	Spatial Effect of Selective Social Factors	189
97	Reformism and Revivalism	Conversion and Place	190
101	Sunni Fundamentalism	Conversion	191
102	Shia Islam	Conclusions	198
109	Twelver Shiism	Notes	202
113	Shiite Sects	The Contextuality of Religions	207
		Hinduism	209
		Southern India	21
		Muslim Conquests and Regional Diversity	ix
		Regional and Local Developments	xv
		Judaism	1
		Sephardic Judaism	1
		Ashkenazic Judaism	7
		Hasidic Judaism	10
		Reform Judaism	12
		Ultra-Orthodox Judaism	16
		Buddhism	19
		Origins of Mahayana Buddhism	21
		Origins of Theravada Buddhism	24
		Diffusion in Central and East Asia	25
		China	28
		Korea	33
		Japan	35
		Tibet	39
		Mongolia	40
		Diffusion in Southeast Asia	42
		Burma and Thailand	43
		Cambodia and Laos	45
		Vietnam	49
		Christianity	49
		Eastern and Western Christianity	50
		Eastern Orthodoxy	53
		Roman Catholicism	56
		Protestantism	59
		Lutheranism	63
		Zwinglianism	63
		Calvinism	64
		Anglicanism	68
		Protestantism and Pietism	71
		Radical and Separatist	75
		Notes
1. Introduction
The Upper West Side Eruv
Religion as a Cultural System
The Mutability of Religions
The Multiformity of Religions
Faith, Place, and Space
Religious Distributions
Context and Faith
Secular Space
Sacred Space
Notes
2. The Spatial Dynamics of Religious Distributions
Religious Hearths
The Indic Region
Vedism
Jainism
Buddhism
Hinduism
Sikhism
The Semitic Region
Proto-Judaism
Judaism
Christianity
Islam
Processes of Spatial Change
Migration
Incidental Diffusion through Migration
Religious Meanings in Migration
Persecution and Discrimination
Migration and New Beginnings

Conversion	77
Spatial Effects of Missionary Activity	80
Spatial Effects of Religious Hegemony	88
Spatial Effects of Selective Social Factors	91
Conversion and Place	92
Contraction	97
Conclusions	101
Notes	102
3. The Contextuality of Religions	109
Hinduism	113
Southern India	114
Muslim Conquests and Regional Diversity	117
Regional and Local Developments	120
Judaism	121
Sephardic Judaism	123
Ashkenazic Judaism	124
Hasidic Judaism	127
Reform Judaism	129
Ultra-Orthodox Judaism	131
Buddhism	133
Origins of Mahayana Buddhism	134
Origins of Theravada Buddhism	136
Diffusion in Central and East Asia	137
China	140
Korea	144
Japan	144
Tibet	147
Mongolia	151
Diffusion in Southeast Asia	152
Burma and Thailand	153
Cambodia and Laos	156
Vietnam	157
Christianity	159
Eastern and Western Christianity	161
Eastern Orthodoxy	164
Roman Catholicism	166
Protestantism	169
Lutheranism	170
Zwinglianism	172
Calvinism	173
Anglicanism	176
Puritanism and Pietism	177
Radicals and Separatists	179

Christianity in the Americas	182
Christianity in Africa	185
Islam	188
Sunni Islam	189
Sunni Legal Schools	190
Sufism	193
Reformism and Revivalism	198
Sunni Fundamentalism	203
Shia Islam	207
Twelver Shiism	208
Shiite Sects	209
Modern Heterodox Sects	212
Conclusions	216
Notes	218
4. Religious Territoriality in Secular Space	221
Internal Expressions of Religious Territoriality	224
The Communal Scale	224
Communal Spaces	225
Hegemonic Religious Groups	229
Religious Minorities	231
Monastic Spaces	238
Narrower Scales	239
Body Space	239
Home and Family Space	250
Wider Scales	252
Imagined Communities of Believers	253
Religious Institutions	253
Less Formal Sources of Interaction	256
Religion and Secular Social Structures	257
Religion and Political Structures	260
Intersections among Scales	264
External Expressions of Religious Territoriality	266
The Communal Scale	268
Public Space	268
Social Space	272
Narrower Scales	279
Religious Adherence	280
Moral Behavior	281
Wider Scales	283
The State	283
International and Global Concerns	291
Intersections among Scales	294
Conclusions	294
Notes	297

5. The Meanings and Uses of Sacred Space	301
Forms of Sacred Space	305
The Cosmic Scale	306
Holy Lands	309
Natural Spaces	312
Sacred Cities	314
Unique Local Spaces	319
Ordinary Local Spaces	323
Microscales	328
Adherent Interactions with Sacred Space	329
Ordinary Worship Practices	330
Life Transitions	332
Pilgrimage	334
Access to Divine Power or Guidance	335
Proximity to the Divine	337
Veneration of Devout Believers and Saints	339
Personal Religious Transformation	340
Fulfillment of Religious Obligation	342
Demonstration of Penance	343
Imagined Spaces	345
Sacred Space as Contested Space	349
Conflicts between Religious Groups	350
Conflicts within a Religious Tradition	354
Conflicts between Religious and Secular Groups	358
Conclusions	362
Notes	363
6. Religion and Human Geography	369
Studying Religion	369
The Articulation of Cultural Identity	372
The Politics of Fundamentalism	375
The Impacts of Globalization	379
Conclusions	383
Notes	384
Glossary	387
Selected Bibliography	395
Index	401
About the Author	423