

(minimum of literature!)

Table of Contents

1. Introduction	1
I. METHODOLOGICAL ISSUES
2. Can There be a Theory of Law?	17
3. Two Views of the Nature of the Theory of Law: A Partial Comparison	47
II. LAW, AUTHORITY, AND MORALITY
4. On the Nature of Law → = bindness to apply!	91
5. The Problem of Authority : Revisiting the Service Conception	126
6. About Morality and the Nature of Law	166
7. Incorporation by Law	182
8. Reasoning with Rules	203
III. INTERPRETATION
9. Why Interpret?	223
10. Interpretation Without Retrieval	241
11. Intention in Interpretation	265
12. Interpretation: Pluralism and Innovation	299
13. On the Authority and Interpretation of Constitutions: Some Preliminaries	323
APPENDIX
14. Postema on Law's Autonomy and Public Practical Reasons: A Critical Comment	373
Index	397