

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Contributors	xii
Acknowledgements	xv
List of Abbreviations	xvii
1 Debating Identities: Women and Monastic Reform in the Medieval West, c. 1000–1500	1
Julie Hotchin and Jirki Thibaut
2 Liturgy and Female Monastic Hagiography around the Year 1000: A lecture croisée of the Life of Liutrud, the Second Life of Glodesind of Metz and the So-called Pontificale Romano-Germanicum	24
Gordon Blennemann
3 Remakers of Reform: The Women Religious of Leominster and their Prayerbook	57
Katie Anne-Marie Bugyis
4 The Materiality of Female Religious Reform in Twelfth-Century Ireland: The Case of Co-located Religious Houses	81
Tracy Collins
5 Women as Witnesses: Picturing Gender and Spiritual Identity in a Twelfth-Century Embroidered Fragment from Northern Germany	98
Julie Hotchin and Vera Henkelmann
6 Mulieres Religiose and Cistercian Nuns in Northern Italy in the Thirteenth Century: A Choice of ‘Order’	132
Elena Vanelli

7	Circulation of Books and Reform Ideas between Female Monasteries in Medieval Castile: From Twelfth-Century Cistercians to the Observant Reform	154
	Mercedes Pérez Vidal
8	Women, Men and Local Monasticism in Late Medieval Bologna	180
	Sherri Franks Johnson
9	Building Community: Material Concerns in the Fifteenth-Century Monastic Reform	202
	Jennifer Edwards
10	Who Made Reform Visible? Male and Female Agency in Changing Visual Culture	227
	Katharina Ulrike Mersch
11	Nuns, Cistercian Chant and Observant Reform in the Southern Low Countries	249
	John Glasenapp OSB
	Index	271