

Contents

List of Contributors xi

Toward Principled Contextualism in Responding to Organized
Non-State Violence 1

Jens David Ohlin & Mitt Regan

PART I: THE FRAMEWORK PROBLEM IN MODERN CONFLICT: CAN WE STILL DISTINGUISH WAR FROM CRIME?

1. Non-State Actors, Terrorism, and the War Paradigm Revisited 21
Seth Cantey

2. The Limits of Law and the Value of Rights in Addressing
Terrorism: A Study of the UN Counterterrorism Architecture 45
Fionnuala Ní Aoláin

3. The Paradox of Discrimination 63
Jens David Ohlin

4. Fighting Terrorism under All Applicable Law 91
Joshua Andresen

5. When Conflict Recurs: Classification of Conflict when Hostilities
Break Out Anew 125
Laurie R. Blank

PART II: WAR AS CRIMINAL ENFORCEMENT

6. Fighting State Actors with the Tools of Hybridized Warfare:
Can the Law of Armed Conflict be Saved? 153
Claire Finkelstein

7. Urban Warfare: Policing Conflict 183
Kenneth Watkin

8. Ratchet Down or Ramp Up? Contemporary Threats, Armed
Conflict, and Tailored Authority 223
Geoffrey S. Corn

9. Using Law as a Weapon against Nuclear Proliferation and Terrorism: The US Government's Financial Lawfare against Iran 265
Orde F. Kittrie
10. Human Rights Law as an Alternative to Jus in Bello 315
Christopher J. Fuller

PART III: FIGHTING CRIME AS WAR

11. National Security Policymaking in the Shadow of International Law 347
Laura A. Dickinson
12. Emerging Transnational Self-Defense Norms and Unrealized Liberal Values 369
John C. Dehn
13. Finding Peace in the Law of War 407
Bailey Brown
14. From Armed Conflict to Countering Threat Networks: Counterterrorism and Social Network Analysis 437
Todd Huntley & Mitt Regan

PART IV: CRIME AND WAR: PROSECUTING TERRORISM AND WAR CRIMES

15. Counting the Ripples: The Challenge of Extraterritorial Jurisdiction to Prosecute Non-State Actors 473
Evan R. Seamone
16. Diversifying the Sources of Evidence in Terrorism Cases before Criminal Courts in (Post-)Conflict and High-Risk Situations: The Role of the Military 491
Bibi van Ginkel, Christophe Paulussen, & Tanya Mehra
17. US Military Prosecutions during Non-International Armed Conflict 519
Chris Jenks
18. Conclusion 549
Jens David Ohlin & Mitt Regan

- Index* 559