

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	page ix
Table of cases	xi
Table of statutes	xiv
Introduction	1
1 Legality in a time of emergency	17
Introduction	17
Judges and the politics of the rule of law	20
Carl Schmitt's challenge	35
Parliamentary or judicial supremacy?	54
The moral resources of law	60
2 Constituting the legislature	66
Constitutional positivism	66
The Communist Party case	72
Canada's common law bill of rights	87
Anxiety about judicial review of legislation	89
Disobeying Parliament	102
Evisceration	107
Reconciliation	108
Deference	118
3 Taking the administrative state seriously	121
Recognizing rationality	121
Maintaining the rule of law	129
Emerging from the shadows	149
In the black hole	160

4	The unity of public law	174
	Introduction	174
	The Belmarsh decision	175
	Refuting dualism	190
	Black holes and the rule of law	196
	The rule of good law	220
	Bibliography	234
	Index	242