

Contents

Introduction	8
1. The Years of Apprenticeship: from Rococo to Neo-Classicism	11
Birth of a vocation
An academic training
First failures, first success
2. Rome: the Shock of the Old	31
A rite of passage: the Académie de France in Rome
The school of Antiquity
First successes in Paris
Consecration
The master of the avant-garde
3. At the Heart of the Revolution	87
The march of the Revolution
Painting as manifesto: The Tennis Court Oath
A revolution in the arts
Icons of the nation
Festival magnificence
The prisons of the Republic
4. The Heights of Fame	125
The peace-making gesture of the Sabine Women
Portrait painter to a new society
David and his pupils
On the Emperor's orders
5. The Twilight of a Career	179
The vicissitudes of fortune
A peaceful exile
Classical myth
David and modernity	204
Bibliography
Photographic credits	